SEASON OUTLOOK

The mission for University of Iowa head baseball coach Rick Heller isn't to rebuild, but to continue building after a 41-win NCAA Regional-qualifying season in 2015.

Pieces are in place to make it happen with 20 returning letterwinners, including three All-Big Ten selections, 2/3 of its starting rotation, 10 pitchers, and four positional players. Iowa also has a collection of freshmen who were the top-rated recruiting class in the Big Ten Conference.

"This group has accepted the challenge to take it a step further," said Heller, who has 71 wins in his first two seasons in Iowa City. "Usually things don't stay the same, they go backward or forward."

"We're not where we want to be. Even though last year was a magical year, we want to take the program even further. It's a challenge with the losses we have, but that's where we set our goals. The players we have back have accepted that challenge."

Iowa was built on its pitching and defense in 2015 -- shattering the school ERA record, finishing with a 2.95 ERA (the previous record was 3.63 in 1971). It was a formula that translated to the second-most victories in school history, a Big Ten Conference runner-up finish, and the program's first NCAA Tournament victory in 43 years.

The Hawkeyes finished the 2015 season in the national rankings for the first time in program history. Iowa was 20th by Collegiate Baseball, 25th by Baseball America, and 28th by the NCBWA.

STARTING PITCHING

Iowa's starting rotation was durable and consistent in 2015. The Hawkeyes used their big three -- Tyler Peyton, Blake Hickman, and Calvin Mathews -- for the duration of the season. Peyton and Mathews are back for an encore.

Peyton, a third-team All-American as a utility player by D1Baseball.com and the NCBWA, returns as the clear ace. The right-hander finished his junior season with a 7-4 record and a 3.03 ERA as Iowa's Friday night starter. He had 74 strikeouts over 95 innings -- an inning total that ranked sixth-best in the Big Ten.

The Grimes, Iowa, native opened Big Ten play with 14 1/3 innings of shutout baseball and led the team with eight quality starts in 2015. Peyton went 4-2 with a 3.42 ERA in eight league starts, ranking in the top 14 in ERA (3.42), opposing batting average (.244), wins (four), and innings pitched (52 2/3).

Peyton bypassed professional baseball to return for his senior season. He was selected in the 33rd round of the 2015 Major League First-Year Player Draft by the Cincinnati Reds.

Mathews is back in the fold after earning second-team All-Big Ten honors as Iowa's Sunday starter in 2015. The Bloomfield, Iowa, native went 5-3 with a 2.45 ERA over 73 1/3 innings as a junior. The right-hander didn't allow an earned run in his first five starts and allowed just 25 runs (20 earned) for the season.

TYLER PEYTON
SENIOR

Redshirt junior Ryan Erickson should get the first crack at replacing All-America right-hander and seventh-round MLB Draft pick Blake Hickman as Iowa's Saturday starter. Erickson would give Iowa a southpaw in the middle of its weekend rotation.

During his first season as a Hawkeye, Erickson was one of the Hawkeyes' most reliable relief options as a long reliever. The Mason City, Iowa, native went 4-1 with a 2.79 ERA and tallied one save in 18 appearances, including a 3-0 record with a 1.74 ERA in Big Ten action.

If Heller elects to keep Erickson as a relief option, sophomores C.J. Eldred and Nick Gallagher, senior Connor Grant, and a quartet of freshmen could vie for starts.

Eldred, the son of former Hawkeye and MLB pitcher Cal Eldred, sat out the 2015 season after transferring from Indiana, while Grant was 1-2 with a 4.02 ERA in 16 appearances (four starts, 12 relief). Gallagher made five midweek starts and nine appearances as a freshman, going 0-0 with a 2.18 ERA.

Freshmen Shane Ritter (RHP), Cole Baker (RHP), Sam Lizarraga (RHP), and Kyle Shimp (LHP) were part of Iowa's top-rated recruiting class. Ritter was the 325th-best prospect by Perfect Game and was an all-state selection in Illinois as a senior; Baker was the top pitcher in Iowa and the 294th-best prospect by Perfect Game, Lizarraga went 8-0 with a 0.70 ERA as a senior and was a two-time all-state selection, and Shimp is a top-500 prospect as a 6-foot-7 southpaw.

RELIEF PITCHING

Make no mistake about it; Iowa's bullpen was a catalyst to the team's success in 2015. The Hawkeyes' bullpen went 20-8 with a 2.90 ERA with a school record 19 saves (in 20 chances) -- the second-most in the Big Ten Conference.

While Springfield Regional Most Outstanding Player Nick Hibbing and fellow senior Brandon Shulista are gone, Iowa has a core in place for 2016.

Seniors Luke Vandermaten and Tyler Radtke are primed to be the Hawkeyes' 1-2 punch at the end of games. Vandermaten was lights out in his first season in Iowa City, going 2-0 with a 1.06 ERA in 22 appearances. He allowed six runs (five earned) over 42 1/3 innings and his ERA total was the third-best in Iowa history.

Radtke is looking to rebound from a sub-par junior campaign where he went 2-1 with a 5.31 ERA in 19 appearances, battling a shoulder injury. During the fall, the right-hander showed signs of returning to his 2014 form -- a season where he went 2-2 with a 3.89 ERA in 23 appearances and limited hitters to a .246 average as Iowa's closer.

After getting off the rust from Tommy John surgery last season, redshirt junior Josh Martsching is primed for a bigger role. The right-hander went 0-1 with a 3.44 ERA in 11 appearances last season, striking out 11 in 18 1/3 innings.

JOSH MARTSCHING
REDSHIRT JUNIOR

Redshirt junior Jared Mandel, sophomore Nick Allgeyer, and junior transfer John Forsythe will give Iowa left-handed options in relief. Mandel went 2-1 with a 4.96 ERA as a sophomore, Allgeyer was 2-0 with a 3.48 ERA in 10 appearances as a freshman, while Forsythe pitched at Cypress (Calif.) Community College in 2015, averaging 7.63 strikeouts per nine innings.

If senior Connor Grant doesn't start, he'll be an option in relief. The right-hander was dominant when he could throw strikes in his first season as a Hawkeye, limiting hitters to a .198 average over 31 1/3 innings. The problem was walks, where Grant issued 22 (to 21 strikeouts).

Along with quartet of Ritter, Baker, Lizarraga, and Shimp, Iowa has three more newcomers that could play a role in relief in freshmen Zach Daniels and Cole McDonald, and junior Zach Fricke.

Daniels was a two-way player at Cedar Rapids Kennedy High School, where he went 4-2 with a 2.52 ERA en route to earning Iowa's Gatorade Player of the Year honors in 2015. Right-hander Cole McDonald is working his way back from Tommy John surgery suffered as a junior at New Hampton (Iowa) High School, while junior college transfer Zach Fricke has a 90-plus mph arm.

Redshirt freshman Kyle Wade is also a relief option, but he is still working his way back from Tommy John surgery.

LUKE VANDERMATEN
SENIOR

JIMMY FRANKOS

CATCHERS

The Hawkeyes will be experienced (and deeper) behind the plate with the return of senior catchers Jimmy Frankos and Daniel Aaron Moriel. Iowa also has Austin Guzzo and Zach Fricke as options in 2016.

Iowa was masterful at controlling the running game in 2015, allowing just 24 steals in 42 attempts -- both fewest in the Big Ten Conference. The Hawkeye backstops helped Iowa post a school-record 2.95 ERA on the mound.

Frankos has been the "every day" catcher for the past two seasons and although his offense dipped in 2016, he was a solid contributor for the Hawkeyes. Frankos appeared in a team-high 40 games with 26 starts, hitting .202 with 10 RBIs and seven runs scored. The Park Ridge, Illinois, native was the Big Ten Co-Player of the Week on April 27 after hitting .500 with three RBIs, including a walk-off RBI single in a win over Nebraska.

Moriel emerged late in the season for the Hawkeyes, starting three of the four games in NCAA Regional play in Springfield, Missouri. The California native threw out a team-high seven base runners and finished with a .271 batting average with 10 RBIs and 11 runs scored.

Guzzo transitioned to catcher early in the season and could be another option behind the dish. The Canada native appeared in 26 games -- 11 at catcher -- and finished his freshman season with a .217 average with seven RBIs and seven runs scored. Guzzo was the Big Ten Freshman of the Week on Feb. 16.

Fricke, a transfer from North Iowa Area Community College, will give Iowa some offensive pop at the catcher position. During his sophomore season with the Trojans, Fricke hit .343 with 13 doubles and 12 home runs. He scored 59 runs and drove in 71 -- both NIACC single-season records.

DANIEL AARON MORIEL

INFIELD

The Hawkeyes have two All-Big Ten selections returning in the infield in seniors Tyler Peyton and Nick Roscetti, but Iowa will be counting on newcomers to fill the roles of multi-year starters Jake Mangler and Nick Day.

Peyton is Iowa's starting first baseman when he's not on the mound, and he just happens to be the team's top hitter. The third-team All-American and third-team All-Big Ten selection hit a team-best .337 with 63 hits in 52 games. Peyton had 11 doubles and two triples, while driving in and scoring 31 runs.

The Grimes, Iowa, native was a semifinalist for the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award as a junior. Peyton tallied at least one hit in 39 games and reached safely in 47 contests. His .337 average was 11th-best in the Big Ten and his .439 on-base percentage ranked fourth in the league.

After getting off to a slow start in 2015, Roscetti emerged and thrived in his first season as the Hawkeye shortstop. The Illinois native hit just .210 over the first 1 1/2 months of the season before his game blossomed in April. He hit .379 with 11 runs and 11 RBIs with 10 multi-hit games during the month. Roscetti rode his hot streak to third-team All-Big Ten honors after hitting .391 with 36 hits, 18 runs, and 17 RBIs in league play. The 36 hits were second-most in the Big Ten.

For the season, Roscetti finished second on the team with 21 multi-hit games and had a team-high eight multi-RBI contests. He hit .303 with 27 runs and 27 RBIs for the season.

Junior-college transfer Mason McCoy is primed to start at one of the infield positions, likely at second or third base after being a two-year All-American at Illinois Central Community College as a shortstop. McCoy's offensive potential could give Iowa's lineup a boost, as the Illinois native hit .382 with 58 hits and eight doubles, while stealing 24 bases as a sophomore. McCoy also was the Northwoods League Most Valuable Player in 2015, finishing with a NWL single-season record 112 hits, 80 runs, and 168 total bases.

Junior Corbin Woods is an option to replace Nick Day at the hot corner and he has the versatility to fill in across the infield. Offensively, Woods' bat made strides during the fall season. In 2015, Woods was primarily a pinch-runner, appearing in 15 games and he hit .167 (1-of-6) in limited action.

When Peyton is pitching, sophomore Grant Klenovich is the likely candidate to handle the first-base duties. As a freshman, Klenovich appeared in 14 games with seven starts, hitting .308 with five RBIs and three runs scored. The Winnetaka, Illinois, native came on late in the season, posting hits in 2-of-3 games at Rutgers, but he missed NCAA Regional action with a knee injury.

Sophomore Austin Guzzo gives Iowa another option at third base and a trio of freshmen -- Mitchell Boe, Zach Daniels, and Daniel Perry -- will provide the Hawkeyes options in the infield.

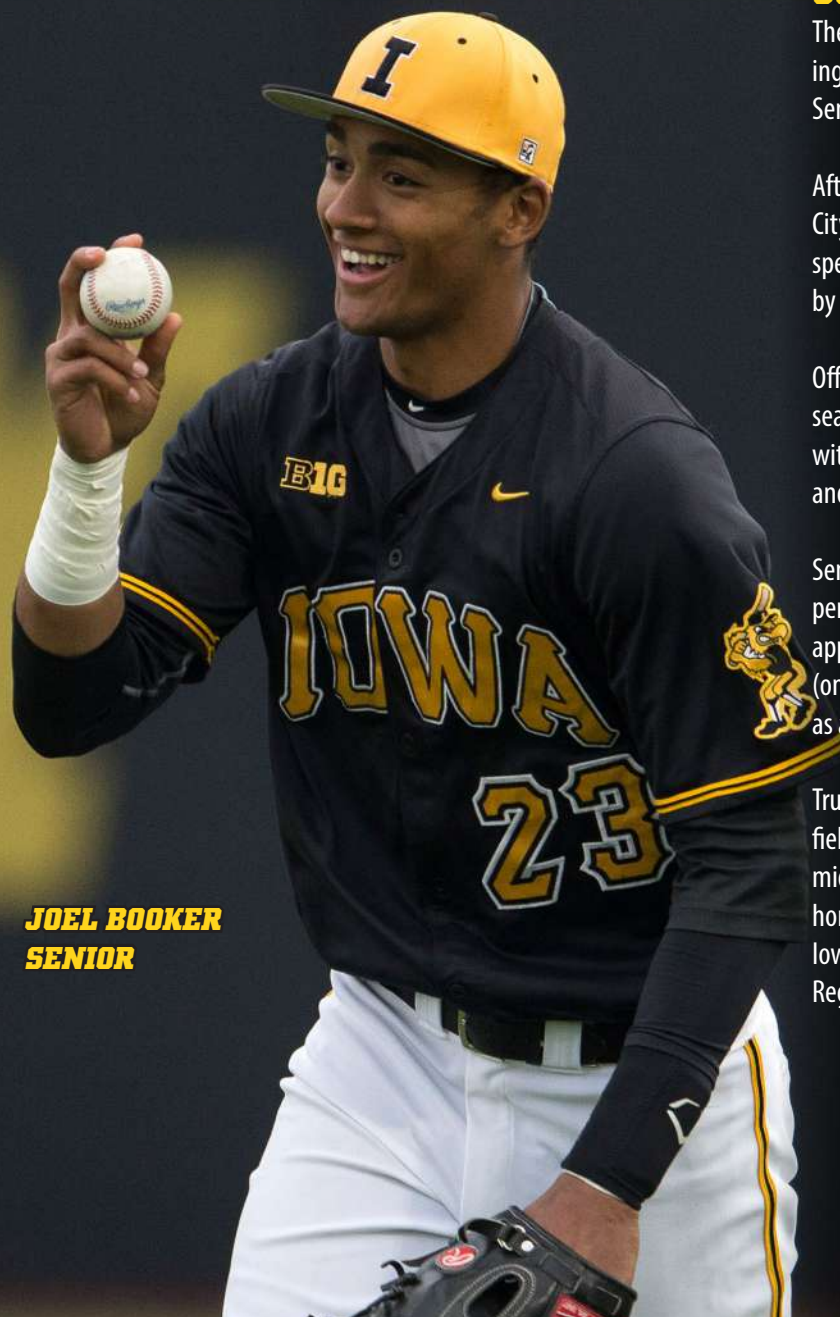

Boe was an all-state selection and the ESCC Offensive Player of the Year as a senior at Joilet Catholic High School, hitting .394 as a senior. He also played at a high level on the club circuit, competing for Team Demarini for four years.

Daniels was Iowa's Gatorade Player of the Year following a senior season where he hit .519 with 46 runs, 27 RBIs, 19 doubles, five triples, and two home runs. He also stole 26 bases in 27 chances. The two-time All-State Super Team and Class 4A All-State Captain was a two-time Perfect Game All-American.

Freshman Daniel Perry is a wild card, as the California native was the highest recruit drafted in the Big Ten Conference in 2015, being taken in the 13th round by the Toronto Blue Jays. Perry elected to be a Hawkeye, but he missed a majority of the fall because of injury. Perry was rated as one of the top prospects nationally by The Scouting News, and he was a four-time all-league selection, hitting .453 with two home runs and a .520 on-base percentage as a senior.

OUTFIELD

The path to playing time in the outfield is wide open in 2016 following the graduation of four-year starters Eric Toole and Kris Goodman. Senior Joel Booker is the Hawkeyes' only returning starter.

After starting every game in right field during his first season in Iowa City, Booker will make the move to centerfield in 2016. Booker has the speed to be a strong defensive player and a rocket for an arm, as evident by his eight outfield assists in 2015.

Offensively, Booker is looking to rebound from an up-and-down junior season. The North Carolina native finished the year with a .235 average with 51 hits, 28 runs, and 25 RBIs. He went 9-for-13 on the base paths and had a team-high eight sacrifice hits.

Senior Eric Schenck-Joblinske and redshirt junior Devin Pickett are penciled in as Booker's replacement in right field. Schenck-Joblinske appeared in 34 games in 2015, hitting .140 with three extra base hits (one triple, two home runs) in just 43 at-bats. Pickett played sparingly as a sophomore, appearing in 11 games with one start.

True freshman Robert Neustrom will get the first crack as Iowa's left fielder and the Sioux City, Iowa, native could be a power source in the middle of the Hawkeye lineup. Neustrom hit .472 with 14 doubles, six home runs, and five triples and drove in 49 runs as a senior. He was an Iowa Gatorade Player of the Year selection and an ABCA/Rawlings All-Region honoree as a senior.

Senior John Barrett, junior Corbin Woods, and freshman Luke Farley will give Iowa depth in the outfield. Barrett started seven games as a junior, hitting .152 with three runs and six RBIs, while Woods gives the Hawkeyes another outfield option. Barrett's most notable 2015 contribution was an 18th-inning sacrifice fly, sending Iowa to a 4-3 win over Sacramento State.

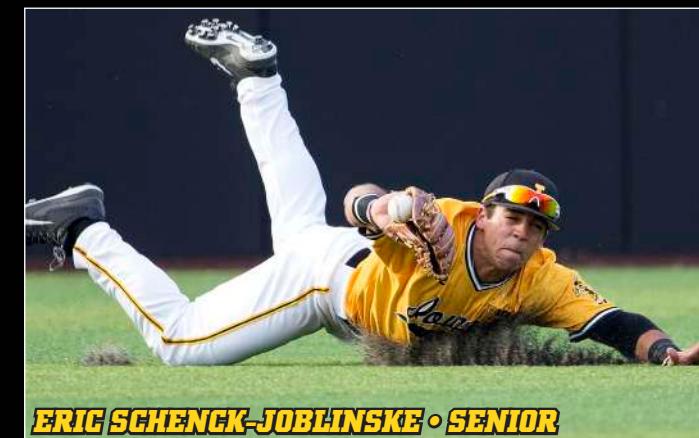

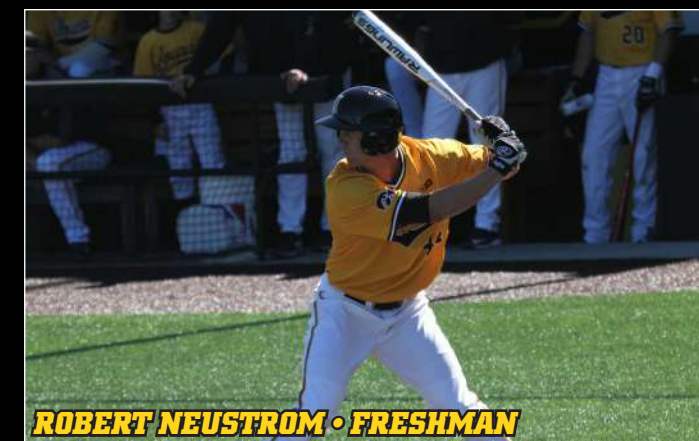

Farley was ranked as the 183rd-best prospect by Perfect Game and was the top-rated player in Iowa. He hit .450 with 43 runs and 33 RBIs as a senior at Waterloo Columbus High School.

DESIGNATED HITTER

When the weather heats up, it is likely that senior Tyler Peyton will pitch and hit for himself -- a feat he performed nine times in 2015. When Peyton's not playing both ways, two underclassmen -- sophomore Grant Klenovich and freshman Luke Farley -- look to fill Iowa's designated hitter role.

Klenovich gives Iowa a presence in the lineup with a 6-foot-4, 225 pound frame and he hit when given the chance as a freshman. Klenovich posted a .308 (8-of-26) batting average with five RBIs and three runs scored over 14 games.

Farley will be green, but all he did was hit during his prep career, hitting better than .400 in each of his four seasons. The Denver, Iowa, native was a Louisville Slugger second-team high school All-American as a junior and he was three-time Perfect Game honorable mention All-America selection.

RICK HELLER
Head Coach
Third Season
Upper Iowa, 1986

Iowa native Rick Heller is entering his third season as head coach of the University of Iowa baseball program. Heller was tabbed as the 20th head coach in program history on July 12, 2013.

Heller, an Eldon, Iowa, native, has been head coach at four institutions -- Iowa (2014-present), Indiana State (2009-13), Northern Iowa (1999-2009), and Upper Iowa (1987-99) -- leading all four schools to NCAA postseason play. He is one of nine coaches all-time and one of five active coaches to lead three different Division I programs to NCAA Regional play.

In 2015, Heller guided the Hawkeyes to an at-large berth into NCAA Regional play and posted the school's first NCAA Tournament win since 1972. He led Indiana State to its first outright Missouri Valley Conference title in 2012, and Northern Iowa to the MVC title and into the NCAA Tournament in 2001, the first and only regional appearance for the Panthers as a Division I program.

Heller is the winningest coach in his first two seasons in Iowa history, posting a 71-41 record, and he is one of two UI head coaches to lead the program to the NCAA Tournament. In 28 seasons as a head coach, Heller owns a career record of 761-606-4.

The Hawkeyes had a breakthrough season in Heller's second season in Iowa City, going 41-18 with the 41 victories being the second-most all-time and just the fourth 40-win season in program history. Iowa earned the school's first NCAA Regional berth since 1990, where it went 2-2 at the Springfield Regional for the program's first NCAA Tournament win since 1972.

The Hawkeyes rolled to a 15-5 start and won its first 11 series of the season, including a school-record eight consecutive Big Ten series wins dating back to the 2014 season. Iowa swept No. 19 Indiana to open Big Ten play to catapult the Hawkeyes into the national rankings for the first time in 25 years. Iowa climbed to as high as No. 13 before finishing the year 20th by Collegiate Baseball, 25th by Baseball America, and 28th by the NCBWA -- the program's first appearance in the final rankings in school history.

Heller guided Iowa to a Big Ten runner-up (three games ahead of the third place finisher) finish in a year where the league was at its all-time best with a record five NCAA Regional participants. Iowa went 19-5 in conference play for a .792 winning percentage -- the best winning percentage by a second place team since the Big Ten returned to single division play in 1988.

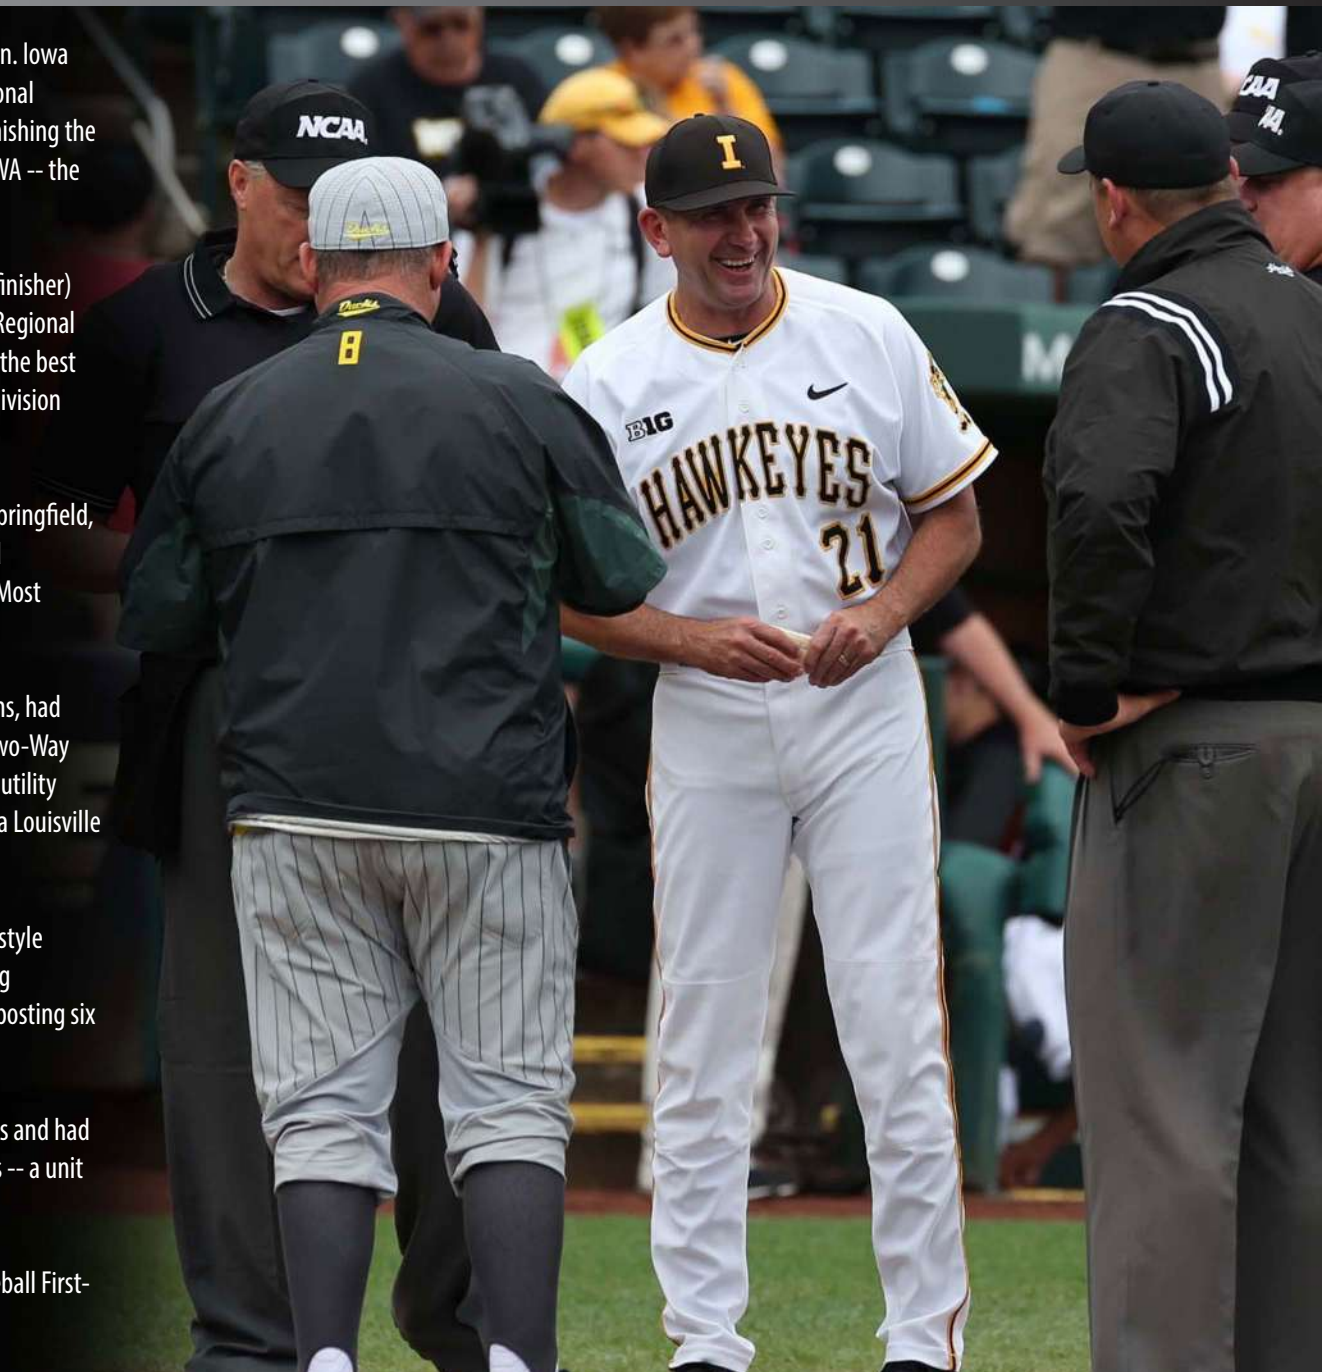

In NCAA Regional play, Heller led the Hawkeyes to a pair of wins over Oregon in Springfield, Missouri, and lost two games to No. 8 national seed Missouri State by a combined three runs. Senior reliever Nick Hibbing was tabbed as the Springfield Regional's Most Outstanding Player and was named to the all-tournament team.

Under Heller's watch, Iowa had a pair of players earn three All-America distinctions, had a school-record six All-Big Ten selections, and a semifinalist for the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award. Tyler Peyton earned third-team All-America honors as a utility from D1Baseball.com and the NCBWA, while starting pitcher Blake Hickman was a Louisville Slugger third-team All-American.

The Hawkeyes won with Hellerball -- a term coined to highlight the team's gritty style of play. Iowa's pitching and defense both finished in the top 16 nationally (fielding percentage, 11th; ERA, 16th) in 2015 and the team had a never-say-die attitude, posting six walk-off wins and going 18-9 in games decided by two runs or less.

The pitching staff shattered the school ERA record, posting a 2.95 ERA in 59 games and had a school-record 19 saves. It was a remarkable turnaround for the Hawkeye hurlers -- a unit that had a 4.34 ERA with virtually the same cast in 2014.

At season's end, five players had their name called in the 2015 Major League Baseball First-

Year Player Draft, tying a program record. Hickman was selected in the seventh round by the Chicago White Sox -- the highest Hawkeye draftee since 1999. Heller has seen eight players drafted, including two top-eight round picks in two seasons.

On the recruiting trail, Heller has helped Iowa become a player on the national recruiting scene. The Hawkeyes' 2015 recruiting class was rated tops in the Big Ten Conference and the 40th-best class nationally. It boasted 11 top-500 prospects by Perfect Game.

In his first season at the UI, Heller guided the Hawkeyes to a 9-1 start -- the program's best start since 1940 -- a Big Ten Tournament berth and conference tournament win. Iowa finished the year with a 30-23 record for just the third 30-win season since 1993. The 30 victories are the most by a first-year coach in Iowa history.

Heller won his 700th career game in a 13-1 rout of Georgetown on March 15 at the Snowbird Classic in Florida. The Hawkeyes also took 2-of-3 games from Nebraska to open the Big Ten regular season -- Iowa's first conference-opening series win since 1998 and took 2-of-3 games against Minnesota for the first time since 2005.

Under Heller's direction, Iowa became one of the most potent offensive teams in the Big Ten in 2014. The Hawkeyes led the conference in four offensive categories (batting average, hits, runs and on-base percentage) and ranked second in four more (slugging percentage, RBIs, home runs and total bases). Iowa finished with 23 home runs -- a season after the team had two long balls in 49 contests.

Heller coached five student-athletes to All-Big Ten recognition, the most for the program since 2007. Junior shortstop Jake Yacinich garnered first-team All-Big Ten honors after ranking second in the league in batting average and steals. He was the first Iowa first-teamer since 2009.

Heller came to the UI after a strong four-year run at Indiana State. He led the Sycamores to their first outright Missouri Valley Conference championship in school history and back to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1995 during the record-setting 2012 season. Indiana State finished 41-19, including a 14-7 record in conference play to claim the regular season crown and earn an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament. The 41 wins were the most for the program since 1991.

Heller was named the 2012 Dan Callahan MVC Coach of the Year, while junior Jeremy Lucas earned the Joe Carter MVC Player of the Year award -- the first student-athlete in ISU history to earn the league's MVP -- and junior Dakota Bacus was selected as the MVC Newcomer of the Year. Eight members of the team were named All-MVC. Following the season, two Sycamores were drafted in the top-12 rounds and a total of three signed contracts to begin their professional careers.

Heller led Indiana State to its fifth-consecutive winning season in 2013, and to a semifinal appearance in the MVC Tournament. The Sycamores, who finished 26-25 overall, had four players earn All-MVC honors, including Sean Manaea, the 34th overall selection in the 2013 MLB Draft by the Kansas City Royals. The draft selection was the second-highest in ISU baseball program history. Manaea became the 16th Sycamore to either be drafted or sign a professional free agent contract since Heller became head coach in 2009.

Heller led Indiana State to a 35-19 record in his first season in Terre Haute, Ind. -- the most wins for any first-year coach in ISU baseball history -- and a third place MVC finish. The Sycamores were one of two MVC teams to receive votes in the national polls during the season. In 2011, Indiana State went 29-28 and advanced to the semifinals of the MVC Tournament -- its deepest run since 2002.

During his tenure at Northern Iowa, Heller's teams won 270 games, including the 2001 Missouri Valley Conference championship and NCAA Regional Berth. While building the Panthers into an annual contender, Heller coached three MVC Most Valuable Players, one MVC Pitcher of the Year and helped put 22 players in professional baseball.

While at UNI, Heller's teams broke a total of 57 team or individual records, including setting team records for hits, runs batted in, doubles and extra base hits during the 2001 season. Heller led the Panthers to four MVC tournaments, winning the championship in 2001. All-American Ryan Brunner claimed the league MVP award and All-American Nic Ungs was named Pitcher of the Year.

The Panthers recorded back-to-back 30-plus win seasons in 2001 and 2002 for the first time in school history and set the school single-season record with 35 wins in 2001. Heller also coached two Academic All-Americans in Brunner and Travis Welsch.

Before taking over the Northern Iowa program prior to the 2000 season, Heller spent 12 years as a head coach at Upper Iowa University, a Division III institution. While at Upper Iowa, Heller recorded a 291-194-3 overall record and was named the Iowa Conference Coach of the Year four times.

Heller won his first conference championship in 1993 -- the first for Upper Iowa in 20 years -- while advancing to the NCAA Division III Regionals. His team won the Iowa Conference title and advanced to NCAA Regionals again in 1995, finishing 19th in the national rankings as Heller won his third Coach of the Year honor.

He repeated Coach of the Year honors again in 1996 when the Peacocks won the Iowa Conference and Central Regional to advance to the NCAA Division III College World Series. His team finished the year ranked sixth nationally and he was named NCAA Division III Central Region Coach of the Year.

In 1997, his team was ranked seventh nationally in the pre-season poll and won the Iowa Conference Tournament. In 1998, his team was ranked as high as 10th nationally while finishing with a 38-8 record to set a school record for winning percentage (.826). His final UIU team finished 30-15-1 and finished third in the Iowa Conference while setting five school records.

As a player at Upper Iowa from 1982-86, he was a four-year starter at shortstop and he also lettered in football and basketball. He is a member of the Upper Iowa Athletic Hall of Fame.

Heller is a member of the American Baseball Coaches Association and serves on the ABCA All-American Committee. He is also a member of the Indiana and Iowa High School Baseball Coaches Associations. In 2008, he was inducted into the Iowa High School Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

Heller has three daughters -- Tara, Alyssa, and Vivienne. His wife's name is Rachelle.

SCOTT BRICKMAN

Pitching Coach

Third Season

Northern Iowa, 1998

Scott Brickman is entering his third season as pitching coach for the University of Iowa baseball program.

In two seasons in Iowa City, Brickman has helped guide the Hawkeyes to 71 wins, an NCAA Regional appearance, and a Big Ten runner-up finish. Iowa has had three All-Americans, three all-region, and 11 All-Big Ten selections. Eight players have had their names called in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

On the recruiting trail, Brickman has helped Iowa become a player on the national recruiting scene. The Hawkeyes' 2015 recruiting class was rated tops in the Big Ten Conference and the 40th-best class nationally. It boasted 11 top-500 prospects by Perfect Game.

Brickman helped lead Iowa to one of the top seasons in program history in 2015. The Hawkeyes went 41-18 and earned an at-large berth into NCAA Regionals -- the first berth since 1990. The 41 wins were the second-most in program history. Iowa, which won two games at the Springfield Regional for its first NCAA Tournament win since 1972, finished the season ranked 20th by Collegiate Baseball, 25th by Baseball America, and 28th by the NCBWA -- the program's first appearance in the final rankings in school history.

Brickman's work with the Iowa pitching staff fueled the team's success. The Hawkeyes finished with a 2.95 ERA to rank 16th in the nation and ranked 10th in hits allowed per nine innings (7.69). The 2.95 ERA shattered the program's school record of 3.63 set in 1971, and the team posted a school record 19 saves.

It was a remarkable turnaround for the Hawkeye pitching staff -- a unit that had a 4.34 ERA with virtually the same cast in 2014.

Under Brickman's watch, Blake Hickman developed from a thrower into a pitcher. The converted catcher earned Louisville Slugger third-team All-America and first-team All-Big Ten honors after going 9-2 -- the program's most wins since 2005 -- with a 2.99 ERA in his first full season as a starting pitcher. Hickman was a seventh round MLB selection by the Chicago White Sox -- the highest Iowa draftee since 1999.

Tyler Peyton garnered a pair of All-America distinctions by D1Baseball.com and NCBWA -- the first Hawkeye since 1990 to earn two All-America honors -- as a utility player, and he was a semifinalist for the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award. Peyton went 7-4 with a 3.03 ERA as Iowa's Friday night starter.

Iowa's third starter -- Calvin Mathews -- and top reliever -- Nick Hibbing -- garnered second-team All-Big Ten recognition. Mathews went 5-3 with a 2.45 ERA, while Hibbing had a career-year, going 4-1 with a 1.57 ERA with 47 strikeouts to five walks. Hibbing was the Springfield Regional's Most Outstanding Player.

Brickman got the most out of his staff as student-athletes improved nearly across the board. Luke Vandermaten went 2-0 with a 1.06 ERA in 22 appearances, walk-on Ryan Erickson was 4-1 with a 2.79 ERA, and Brandon Shulista had a career year, going 3-2 with a 3.67 ERA.

In his first season in Iowa City, Brickman helped guide the Hawkeyes to a 9-1 start -- the program's best start since 1940 -- a Big Ten Tournament berth and conference tournament win. Iowa finished the year with a 30-23 record for just the third 30-win season since 1993.

Brickman pieced together a mix-and-match pitching staff that was forced to battle through injuries throughout the season. Under Brickman's tutelage, Mathews became a front-of-the-line pitcher, posting a 3-3 record with a 2.72 ERA before going down with an injury, and walk-ons Jared Mandel (2-1, 2.70 ERA) and Tyler Radtke (2-2, 3.89 ERA, three saves) developed into major pieces in the Iowa bullpen.

Brickman also worked with Hickman in his transition from catcher to the mound. Hickman went 2-2 with a 3.93 ERA in his first year as a pitcher, and he was the starter in game two at the Big Ten Tournament -- a 2-1 Hawkeye victory.

Brickman joined the Iowa coaching staff in 2013 after serving four seasons as head coach at NCAA Division II Belmont Abbey, where he led the Crusaders to a 104-82 record, a 2012 Conference Carolinas Western Division Championship, and a pair of top-25 national rankings -- the first in school history. Brickman departed the school with the best winning percentage in the program's 22-year history.

In 2013, Brickman guided the Crusaders to a 27-17 record, and the squad earned a top-25 ranking during the regular season for the second time in program history. Five players garnered all-conference recognition, and pitcher Emilio Pagan was selected in the 10th round of the 2013 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, the program's highest draftee in its history.

Brickman led the Crusaders to the Conference Carolinas Western Division title in 2012 -- the third crown in school history and first in more than a decade. Brickman coached Pagan to ABCA/NWBCA All-America honors and two Crusaders earned all-conference and All-Southeast Regional honors. Steven Thiele was also tabbed as the Conference Male Academic Scholar Athlete of the Year for the second-straight season.

In his second season as head coach, Brickman led the Crusaders to an 11-win turnaround from his first season, winning 29 games and earning the first top-25 ranking in program history. Brickman coached six players to all-conference recognition and one All-Southeast Regional honoree. Three Crusaders also earned academic all-conference honors, and Thiele was the Conference's Male Academic Scholar Athlete of the Year.

From 2007-09, Brickman served as an assistant coach at Northern Iowa. In two seasons with the Panthers, five pitchers were drafted or signed by Major League Baseball organizations, accounting for 20 percent of the players drafted at UNI since 1962. During the 2008 season, Brickman helped guide the Panthers to 30 wins for just the fourth time in the school's 103-year history, while posting the fourth-best ERA (4.75) since the move to Division I in 1981.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Brickman spent five seasons as an assistant coach at Wofford College, where he coached two Freshman All-Americans and helped the Terriers win the 2007 Southern Conference Championship and an NCAA Tournament berth.

Brickman also served as head coach of the Florence Redwolves, a summer collegiate team in Florence, S.C., in 2004-05. The 2005 team advanced to the Coastal Plains League championship game and set the franchise record with 33 wins. Twelve of his players were drafted or signed by MLB teams, including 2006 first-round pick, Clemson University's Tyler Colvin.

From 2000-02, Brickman was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for Muscatine Community College. During his tenure, he saw three pitchers and 15 total players earn all-region honors, and four players were selected in the MLB Draft. Brickman also was an assistant coach at Wartburg College in 1998-99, helping the Knights win the Iowa Conference and advance to the 1999 NCAA Tournament.

As a pitcher at Northern Iowa, Brickman led the Panthers to a second-place finish in the Missouri Valley Conference in 1997, and he was a twice named Missouri Valley Pitcher of the Week.

The Denver, Iowa, native earned his bachelor's degree from Northern Iowa in 1998. He is married to the former Cassandra Mucks, and they reside in North Liberty, Iowa.

MARTY SUTHERLAND

Assistant Coach/
Recruiting Coordinator
Third Season
Northern Iowa, 1998

Marty Sutherland is entering his third season as hitting coach and recruiting coordinator for the University of Iowa baseball program.

In two seasons in Iowa City, Sutherland has helped guide the Hawkeyes to 71 wins, an NCAA Regional appearance, and a Big Ten runner-up finish. Iowa has had three All-America, three all-region, and 11 All-Big Ten selections. Eight players have had their names called in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.

On the recruiting trail, Sutherland has led the charge, helping Iowa become a major player on the national recruiting scene. The Hawkeyes' 2015 recruiting class was rated tops in the Big Ten Conference and the 40th-best class nationally. It boasted 11 top-500 prospects by Perfect Game.

Sutherland helped lead Iowa to one of the top seasons in program history in 2015. The Hawkeyes went 41-18 and earned an at-large berth into NCAA Regionals -- the first berth since 1990. The 41 wins were the second-most in program history. Iowa won two games at the Springfield Regional for its first NCAA Tournament win since 1972 and finished the season ranked 20th by Collegiate Baseball, 25th by Baseball America, and 28th by the NCBWA-- the program's first appearance in the final rankings in school history.

With Sutherland's assistance, Iowa was one of the top defensive teams in the country, ranking 11th overall and No. 2 in the Big Ten. Offensively, the Hawkeyes battled until the final pitch, as evident by their six walk-off wins and 18-9 record in games decided by two or fewer runs.

Sutherland coached junior Tyler Peyton to All-America honors as a utility player by D1Baseball.com and NCBWA, and he was a semifinalist for the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award. Peyton hit a team-best .337 with 31 runs and 31 RBIs.

The Hawkeyes had a school-record six All-Big Ten selections in 2015, including three positional players. Five players had their names called in the 2015 Major League Baseball Draft, tying a program record for most draftees in a single season.

In his first season in Iowa City, Sutherland helped guide the Hawkeyes to a 9-1 start -- the program's best start since 1940 -- a Big Ten Tournament berth and conference tournament win. Iowa finished the year with a 30-23 record for just the third 30-win season since 1993.

Iowa's offense thrived under Sutherland, as the Hawkeyes led the Big Ten in four offensive categories (batting average, hits, runs and on-base percentage) and ranked second in four more (slugging percentage, RBIs, home runs and total bases). Iowa finished with 23 home runs -- a season after the team had two long balls in 49 contests.

Five Iowa student-athletes garnered All-Big Ten recognition, the most for the program since 2007, which included first-team All-Big Ten shortstop Jake Yacinich. He was the first Hawkeye to earn a first-team nod since 2009.

Sutherland, a former player and coach under UI head coach Rick Heller at Northern Iowa, was an assistant for the Panthers from 2003-09, helping lead the team to 154 victories over six seasons. He coached 12 All-Missouri Valley Conference selections and an MVC Newcomer and Player of the Year honoree.

Sutherland also served as an assistant coach at Wartburg College during the 2002-03 season. Most recently, Sutherland was an assistant coach at Cascade (Iowa) High School and a hitting/fielding instructor at Bases Loaded Academy in Dubuque, Iowa.

Sutherland was an infielder at Northern Iowa during the 2001 and 2002 seasons, helping the team to its first back-to-back 30 win seasons in program history. He also played at Kirkwood Community College from 1998-2000.

During his two seasons in Cedar Falls, Sutherland batted .318 with 25 doubles and 29 stolen bases. He also finished his career with 64 RBIs.

In 2001, Sutherland was a second team All-MVC and second team All-Midwest region honoree after UNI won a school-record 35 games and claimed the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title en route to the first NCAA Tournament berth in school history. Sutherland batted .349, and the Panthers finished 10th in the nation and led the MVC in hitting with a .333 batting average.

In 2002, UNI won 30 games and finished fourth in the Missouri Valley. The squad finished with a .327 batting average in conference games to lead the league.

The Cascade, Iowa, native earned his associate's degree from Kirkwood Community College in July, 2000, and his bachelor's degree from Northern Iowa in Dec., 2002.

ERIC FOOR

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season
California State University,
Bernardino, 2009

Erik Foor is in his first season as volunteer assistant coach for the University of Iowa baseball program.

Foor's most recent coaching stop came at Belmont Abbey College during the 2014 season. While with the Crusaders, Foor served as varsity pitching coach and junior varsity head coach.

During his lone season in North Carolina, Foor coached the Conference Carolinas Freshman Pitcher of the Year and a first-team all-conference pitcher, and led the JV team to the most wins in program history. Left-handed pitcher Cody Stull was selected in the MLB Draft.

From 2009-13, Foor was pitching coach at California State University, San Bernardino, where he had eight pitchers selected in the Major League Baseball First-Year Player Drafts.

During his stop at San Bernardino, Foor helped the team to a pair of third place finishes in the CCCA Conference Tournament, and the pitching staff had a sub-four ERA in three seasons. The staff had a 3.44 ERA in 2010 -- the second-best mark in the league.

Foor also spent two seasons as pitching coach for the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim Elite Baseball Program, working with the top southern California high school prospects. Three players Foor has coached -- Taijuan Walker (Mariners), Aaron Brooks (Royals), and Brandon Cuniff (Braves) -- have gone on to play in the Major Leagues.

As a player, Foor competed in professional baseball from 2005-07. He played for the Chicago Cubs organization in 2005-06, before competing for Yuma Scorpions and Rio Grande Valley White Wings in 2006-07.

Foor played collegiate baseball at California State University, San Bernardino in 2004-05, where he was an all-conference starting pitcher as a senior. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from CSUSB in 2009 and a master's degree in education in 2012.

Foor and his wife, Kayse, have a daughter, Makaylee, and they reside in North Liberty, Iowa.

DESI DRUSCHEL

Director of Baseball Operations
Second Season
Mount Mercy, 1998

Desi Druschel is entering his second season as the University of Iowa baseball program's director of baseball operations and director of Iowa baseball camps.

In his first season in Iowa City, Druschel helped lead the Hawkeyes to one of their best seasons in program history. Iowa won 41 games -- the second-most all-time -- and earned an at-large berth into NCAA Regional play for the first time since 1990. Iowa won two games at the Springfield Regional for their first NCAA Tournament victory since 1972. The Hawkeyes finished in the final national rankings for the first time in school history, coming in at No. 20 by Collegiate Baseball, 25th by Baseball America, and 28th by the NCBWA.

Iowa had three All-America and a school-record six All-Big Ten selections, and five players had their names called in the 2015 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft, including Blake Hickman, who was the program's highest draftee since 1999.

Before joining the Iowa coaching staff, Druschel won 172 games, advanced to a pair of NAIA Region VII Tournaments and posted two conference runner-up and two third-place finishes as head coach at Mount Mercy College in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, from 2006-14. He coached three honorable mention All-Americans, 22 all-conference selections, and 12 Gold Glove honorees.

Druschel also coached three NAIA Scholar Athletes, three all-region scholar athletes and 33 academic all-conference selections. Druschel initially joined the Mount Mercy staff prior to the 2005 season as an assistant coach before being promoted to the head position a year later.

Druschel has also served as head coach at The Franciscan University (now Ashford University) in Clinton, Iowa, from 2001-04, where he helped the Saints set 45 school records. He also was an assistant at Mount St. Clare College (2000-01), Indiana University (1999-00), and Vinton-Shellsburg (Iowa) High School (1996-2000) during his coaching career.

Druschel, a member of the American Baseball Coaches and Iowa High School Baseball Coaches Associations, played baseball and basketball collegiately at Upper Iowa and Mount Mercy from 1994-98.

The Vinton, Iowa, native graduated from Mount Mercy with a bachelor's degree in management in 1998, and he earned his master's degree in athletic administration from Indiana in 2001. He and his wife, Jessica, have two children, Jace and Halle.

GARY BARTA ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Gary Barta enters his 10th year as the director of athletics at the University of Iowa riding momentum of record-setting performances in every leg of the three-legged stool by which the Iowa Hawkeyes approach each day: Win. Graduate. Do it Right.

A big picture view of the UI's success in the "Win" category is provided by a review of the Hawkeyes' performance in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition. The Hawkeyes completed the 2014-15 season with 535.50 points – the most points the UI has ever accumulated in the history of the competition. That point total resulted in a 44th place finish, the third-best recorded by the UI and its best since the 2004-05 athletics year.

UI student-athletes continued to attack their work in the classroom – the "Graduate" leg of the Hawkeyes' three-legged stool – with the same intensity as they pursue their opponents in competition: Iowa established a record for its NCAA Graduation Success Rate in 2014-15 while again achieving a perfect score in the NCAA's Annual Progress Report.

The "Do it Right" column was filled with successes as well. Under Barta's leadership, the Hawkeyes continued their significant service and contribution to the greater Iowa City area community, took a leadership position in matters related to student-athlete welfare, and remained among the handful of intercollegiate athletics programs nationally that successfully operate in the black while also maintaining its status as 100 percent self-supporting.

Iowa's success in competition was highlighted by another postseason appearance by the UI football program and deep postseason runs by the UI's wrestling, women's basketball, and men's gymnastics programs. The highlights include the following:

- The Iowa football team advanced to its 12th postseason bowl game under the leadership of Kirk Ferentz. Thirteen Hawkeyes were named All-Big Ten, including Brandon Scherff, who was named the Big Ten's Offensive Lineman of the Year, became Iowa's 22nd consensus All-American, and fourth Outland Trophy winner.
- Lisa Bluder's women's basketball team advanced to the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament for the first time under its longtime head coach during a brilliant 26-win season – a mark that included an 18-0 record in games played on Mediacom Court in Carver-Hawkeye Arena – and its highest national ranking (11th) since the 1995-96 season. Iowa is one of 10 teams nationally that has appeared in the last eight NCAA Tournaments. Four Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, seven earned Academic All-Big Ten recognition, two garnered Academic All-America honors, and senior consensus All-American Samantha Logic became the second player in program history to be drafted in the first round of the WNBA Draft (10th selection, Atlanta Dream) and was the 12th to be drafted overall.
- Tom Brands' Iowa wrestling squad finished second at this year's NCAA Tournament after sharing the Big Ten Conference tournament title and claiming another dual meet championship with a 9-0 record against conference opponents. The Hawkeyes had six wrestlers earn All-American status.
- Fran McCaffery's men's basketball team registered the program's first NCAA Tournament victory since 2001. The season also included a big road win at North Carolina during the nonconference portion of the schedule, in addition to a third-place finish in the Big Ten Conference. Three Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, including first-team selection Aaron White, who also became the second Hawkeye in two years to be selected in the annual NBA Draft.
- Rick Heller's baseball program burst onto the national stage when it raced to its first appearance in a top 25 since 1990 – the program was 20th in the final rankings, the first appearance in the final poll in school history. The Hawkeyes won 41 games – the second-most all-time -- en route to the program's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 25 years. Six Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors, two Hawkeyes earned three All-America honors, and five players were selected in the 2015 Major League Baseball First-Year Player Draft.
- Under first-year head coach Tyler Stith, sophomore Carson Schaake became the third Big Ten individual champion in program history and the first since 1992.

Stith guided Iowa to its seventh straight NCAA Tournament appearance where the Hawkeyes finished a single stroke shy of advancing to the national championship. Two Hawkeyes earned All-Big Ten honors and three were named to the Division I PING All-Midwest Regional Team.

- Including Schaaque of the UI's men's golf team, Iowa crowned eight Big Ten champions during the 2014-15 year: Dominic Patrick and Matt Hagan (men's tennis, indoor doubles), Babatunde Amosu (track and field, indoor, triple jump), Becky Stoughton (swimming and diving, 1,650-yard freestyle), Aaron Mallett (track and field, outdoor 110-meter hurdles), Elexis Guster (track and field, outdoor, 400-meters), and Amosu (track and field, outdoor, triple jump).

- Larissa Libby's GymHawks used a season-high score at the 2015 Big Ten Conference Women's Gymnastics Championship to help secure the program's seventh NCAA Regional berth in the last eight seasons. The team's score of 196.500 is the highest achieved by Iowa in conference championship action since 2004, and its fifth place team result is the program's best finish since 2010. A school record four gymnasts were named to the Big Ten All-Championship Team, four earned Academic All-Big Ten distinction, and senior Sydney Hoerr was named second team All-Big Ten.

- JD Reive's UI men's gymnastics squad made its second appearance in the NCAA championship in the last three seasons a grand one by upsetting fifth-ranked Illinois en route to a sixth-place national finish. The Hawkeyes were paced by junior Jack Boyle, who earned All-America honors on still rings, and season-high performances on the high bar and floor exercise. Eight Hawkeyes were named Academic All-Big Ten, and junior Doug Sullivan earned second team All-Big Ten honors.

- Joey Woody's debut season as head coach of the UI's men's and women's track and field teams resulted in four Big Ten titles and 11 All-America honors.

- Paced by a Big Ten champion and bolstered by eight record-setting performances at their conference championship meets, Marc Long's men's and women's swimming and diving teams closed their season by scoring points at their respective national championships.

- The 2014-15 year also marked the second straight season the Iowa's women's soccer team advanced to the championship game of the Big Ten Tournament. The Hawkeyes finished with 14 wins in 2014, including seven in conference play, tying the most in a single season in program history.

Iowa's "Wins" also occurred at the turnstiles, where the UI continued to lead the nation in attendance for home events of the Hawkeye wrestling program and be one of only eight programs in the country to rank in the Top 25 in attendance for football, women's basketball, and men's basketball. The UI also experienced sharp increases in spectator interest in baseball and volleyball in 2014-15.

The 2014-15 year opened with affirmation of Iowa's long-time commitment to the "Graduate" leg of Iowa's three-legged stool and the student-athlete experience at the UI: In October, the NCAA reported that Iowa's student-athletes had set a record by posting a score of 89 percent "Graduation Success Rate" or "GSR." That mark was one point better than the previous year and seven points better than the national average.

The NCAA also noted the UI had posted a federal graduation rate of 78 percent, which was also a record and in addition was 12 points better than the national average and tops among the three State of Iowa Board of Regents' institutions.

Last May, the NCAA reported that all 24 of Iowa's sports programs were comfortably above Academic Progress Rate (APR) threshold. The NCAA also singled out the UI's volleyball, soccer, women's swimming and diving, and men's golf teams for APR scores that ranked in the top 10 percent of their peer group. Of those four, volleyball, women's swimming and diving, and men's golf registered perfect scores of 1,000.

The 2014-15 college basketball season ended not only with the UI being one of a handful of institutions nationally which had both of its program participate in their national championship, but also with the UI being the only school in the country with multiple academic All-Americans: Samantha Logic and Ally Disterhoft in women's basketball and Mike Gesell in men's basketball. The Hawkeyes also boasted an academic

All-Americans in football (senior RB Mark Weisman), in addition to 153 academic All-Big Ten selections across its 24 sports programs.

"Doing it Right" for Barta and the more than 225 staff of the UI Athletics Department is a charge that encompasses a long and varied list of responsibilities, including maintaining the department's status as one of a handful of intercollegiate athletics programs nationally that successfully operates its sports programs and auxiliary enterprises in a fiscally responsible manner, and without any institutional or taxpayer financial support. The UI provides a superior experience for the more than 650 talented student-athletes who participate in the program annually, and the more than million friends and fans of the Hawkeyes and the UI who attend athletics events on the UI campus, while being responsible and productive citizens of the greater Iowa City and University of Iowa community.

In 2015-16, Barta will be responsible for an annual operating budget that will exceed $90 million, with 100 percent of the revenue side of that budget be generated by the UI Athletics Department. The majority of that revenue will come as a result of success in traditional revenue sources: Income as a result of membership in the Big Ten Conference (including television), sales of tickets to events on the UI campus, and donations to the National I-Club.

The latter has grown into a critical piece of the financial pie managed by Barta, as evidenced by back-to-back years of record-setting fundraising support exceeding $28 million annually. That philanthropic support has been critical to the a long list of athletics facilities that have either been built or renovated during Barta's first nine years on campus.

The list includes construction of the recently-completed $55 million home of Iowa's football program, the Stew and LeNore Hansen Football Performance Center, $47 million revitalization of Carver-Hawkeye Arena, installation of a new videowall and video ribbon board at Kinnick Stadium, installation of a new video scoreboard and playing surface at Duane Banks Field, construction of a new indoor turf facility, renovation of the practice space inside the UI Fieldhouse used by the UI's women's and men's gymnastics teams, construction of the Hoak Family Golf Facility, turf replacement at Grant Field, the home of Iowa's nationally ranked field hockey program, and resurfacing of the Klotz Tennis Center, to name a few.

Iowa's contributions to the greater Iowa City community go far beyond the multi-million dollars of economic impact generated as a result of the staging of hundreds of regular season, postseason and special events annually. Barta and UI student-athletes, coaches, and staff are also active citizens, logging thousands of hours of community service and also spearheading efforts to support a wide variety of causes ranging from construction of the UI's new Children's Hospital to the UI's extremely successful Dance Marathon to Coaches vs. Cancer.

Iowa's annual "Day of Caring" serves as the foundation upon which all these outreach activities rest. Now in its 20th year of existence, the Day of Caring happens each April and typically involves representatives of most, if not all, of Iowa's sports programs who provide a wide variety of assistance to an equally wide variety of not-for-profit organizations that service the greater Iowa City community.

"Doing it Right" also encompasses efforts aimed at improving the student-athlete experience. The UI Athletics Department invested more than $1.7 million directly into food cost for its student-athletes in 2014-15 in response to NCAA legislation aimed at providing a higher quality student-athlete experience. In 2015-16, that commitment will continue and will be complemented by increases to the value of the scholarships awarded the UI's student-athletes as part of the NCAA's effort to fully address cost of attendance.

Providing the resources for the UI's student-athletes and coaches to be successful is a priority for Barta and his senior management team. That process includes state-of-the-art facilities, which is why Barta enters the 2015-16 year working closely with institutional leadership on the finalization of a comprehensive master plan for the facilities available to the Hawkeyes.

The plan will include a comprehensive review of the north grandstand of historic Kinnick Stadium; study of the feasibility of a student-athlete dormitory and dining facility of the west side of the UI campus; a comprehensive review of Carver-Hawkeye Arena including, specifically, the scoreboards and videowalls, the creation of a main entrance and "Wall of Honor" and other enhancements to the fan experience; Phase III of the revitalization of Duane Banks Field; a comprehensive review of Finkbine Golf Course and, specifically, the clubhouse; a comprehensive review of the Gerdin Athletics Learning Center; and, development of the "Hawkeye Campus" on the western edge of the UI campus, a project that could include new or renovated facilities for indoor and outdoor track and field, softball, volleyball, gymnastics, soccer, field hockey, and tennis.

Barta's involvement in the UI campus and the greater Iowa City communities extends beyond his position as director of the UI's intercollegiate athletics programs. He is a member of the President's Cabinet, comprised of vice presidents and other campus leaders that provide counsel to the UI's president. That group was instrumental in the UI's response to record-setting flooding that besieged the campus and the Iowa City and Coralville community in June 2008 and will be directly involved in positioning the UI for growth in the immediate and long-term future as the institution responds to the expectations of the residents of the state, members of the state legislature, and the State of Iowa Board of Regents.

Barta also represents the UI and the Hawkeyes at the conference and national level as a member of the Rose Bowl Management Committee and the College Football Playoff Advisory Committee. During his tenure at the UI, he has participated in the creation and implementation of the Big Ten Network, the expansion of the Big Ten Conference and realignment of athletics conferences nationally, and the Big Ten's postseason bowl game agreements that were successfully implemented in 2010.

Barta remains active on the conference and NCAA level. He is involved in committee work with NCAA Football, the Division IA Athletic Directors Association, and is an ongoing participant in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA).

Barta is also involved in a variety of community groups, including the United Way of Johnson and Washington Counties and the Partnership for Alcohol Safety, a joint effort between UI campus leaders and the city of Iowa City.

Barta often suggests to his staff that "Hope is not a strategy," which is why the department has completed a comprehensive review and rewriting of the strategic plan for the UI Athletics Department and continues to work with the UI's leadership on a long-term financial plan. As the director of athletics at the University of Wyoming for three years, seven different Wyoming coaches were named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He also spearheaded a fund-raising effort that netted the Cowboy athletics program $11 million in private support and $11 million in matching state funds.

As the senior associate athletics director at the University of Washington, he directed the "Campaign for the Student-Athlete," was a participant in the design, construction and/or renovation of several Washington athletics facilities, including Bank of America Arena and the Dempsey Indoor Practice Facility. In addition to almost doubling the amount of annual private support received by Washington, Barta also managed the department's external relations division, a task that included corporate sponsorship and radio contracts.

His responsibilities at Washington expanded over time to include hiring of coaching and administrative staff, and the day-to-day oversight of several Huskie sport teams.

The roots of his development experience extend to his first two positions: director of development at his alma mater, North Dakota State University, and director of athletics development and external relations at the University of Northern Iowa.

Barta earned a bachelor of science degree in mass communication and broadcast journalism from North Dakota State in 1987. He was an option quarterback for Bison football squads that won the Division II NCAA National Championship in 1983, 1985, and 1986.

Barta, and his wife, Connie, have a son, Luke (17) and a daughter, Madison (15). He was born Sept. 4, 1963, in Minneapolis.

IOWA CONTINUES TO BUILD FOR SUCCESS

The UI Department of Athletics is under the direction of Gary Barta and is regarded as one of the top intercollegiate programs in the nation. Once again, the Hawkeyes enjoyed success both athletically and academically in 2014-15

Academically, the UI's federal graduation rate of 78 percent (for student-athletes who enrolled in the fall of 2007), meaning UI student-athletes have graduated at a rate of 70 percent or better in five of the last six years. That mark was eight points better than the UI student body and 12 points better than achieved by student-athletes nationally. For the sixth consecutive year, all 24 of Iowa's teams exceeded the Academic Progress Rate (APR) benchmark and the program posted a record 89 percent in the NCAA's "Graduation Success Rate." That mark was one point better than last year's record-setting mark of 88 percent. It is the 10th time in 11 years of the GSR's existence that Iowa's student-athletes scored 80 percent or better.

Seven UI teams scored a perfect 100 on their GSR: Men's basketball, field hockey, men's golf, women's golf, softball, men's tennis, women's tennis, and volleyball. All counted, the GSR for 18 of Iowa's 24 teams was better than the national average among its peer sport group.

Athletically, Hawkeye teams enjoyed another outstanding year in 2014-15, as a significant number of Iowa's 24 programs reached postseason play. Iowa finished in 44th place in the 2014-15 Learfield Cup. The Iowa football team played in the 2015 Tax Slayer Bowl, the UI men's basketball team advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the second year in a row, the women's basketball team competed in the NCAA Tournament for the eighth straight season and advanced to the Sweet 16, the wrestling team finished second at the NCAA Championships, the baseball team advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1990, and the men's golf team advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the seventh consecutive year.

The second phase of the Duane Banks Field renovation was completed in 2015 when AstroTurf replaced the outfield grass and warning track. The infield was changed to the surface prior to the 2014 season meaning there is now zero dirt or natural grass at the Hawkeyes' home venue. Phase II renovations also included the installation of a state-of-the-art videoboard in left center field and a new padded wall on the outfield fence and down the foul lines. With the first two phases complete, Phase III calls for brand new stadium seating and a new press box to be constructed surrounding the existing playing field.

After completing phase I of the project for the UI football program in August, 2012 -- a new indoor practice facility -- the second phase was finished last fall. Phase II includes construction of the new Iowa Football Operations Center, which includes new team locker rooms, team meeting rooms, athletic medical training space, video operations, and coaches offices and meeting rooms. Funded entirely through private support and revenue generated by the UI Athletics Department, the project is an important phase of the master facilities plan for Hawkeye football.

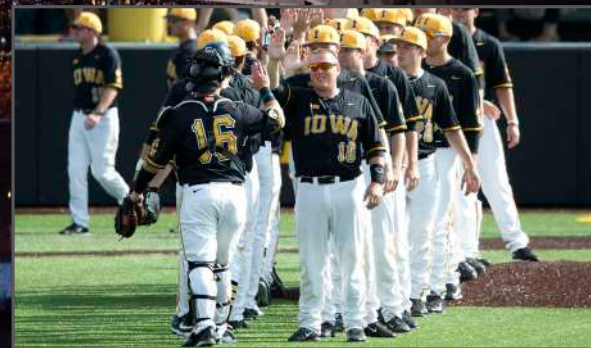

IOWA FOOTBALL

The Iowa football team posted a 7-6 record in 2014, which included a berth in the 2015 TaxSlayer Bowl. The Hawkeyes placed fourth in the Big Ten's Legends Division.

IOWA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

UI head coach Lisa Bluder guided the Hawkeye women's basketball team to their eighth-straight NCAA Tournament in 2014-15. The Hawkeyes advanced to the Sweet 16 following opening-round victories over American and Miami (Florida) in Iowa City, giving them a perfect 18-0 record at home. The Hawkeyes fell to Baylor in the Sweet 16 and finished 26-8 overall. Iowa is the only Big Ten team to appear in eight consecutive NCAA tournaments and one of 10 schools nationally. Guard Samantha Logic became the second Hawkeye in program history to be drafted in the first round of the WNBA Draft.

Iowa was one of eight schools nationally to make a bowl game in football, advance to the men's and women's basketball NCAA Tournaments, and play in an NCAA Regional in baseball.

IOWA WRESTLING

The Hawkeyes finished the 2014-15 season with a Big Ten regular season title, a co-Big Ten championship, six All-Americans, and nine academic All-Big Ten honorees. The Hawkeyes owned an overall record of 17-1, won at least a share of the Big Ten regular season title for the seventh time in the last eight seasons, and took home an NCAA team trophy for the eighth straight season, the longest active streak in the country.

IOWA WOMEN'S SOCCER

In Dave Dilanni's first season as head coach of the Iowa soccer team, the Hawkeyes won 14 contests, their third and fourth postseason games in program history, while earning an appearance in the B1G Tournament Championship Game for a second consecutive season. Seniors Cloe Lacasse and Melanie Pickert became the first pair of Hawkeyes in program history to be named first-team All-Big Ten in the same season, and just the second and third Hawkeyes all-time to garner first-team recognition.

IOWA MEN'S BASKETBALL

Fifth-year head coach Fran McCaffery led Iowa to its third-straight 20-win season and guided the team to the NCAA Tournament for the second year in a row. Iowa picked up its first NCAA Tournament victory since 2001 after defeating Davidson in the round of 64. Senior Aaron White earned first-team All-Big Ten recognition and became the second Hawkeye since 2007 to have his name called in the NBA Draft when he was selected by the Washington Wizards in the second round.

IOWA MEN'S GOLF

First-year head coach Tyler Stith led the Hawkeyes to their seventh-straight NCAA Regional appearance in 2015. Three student-athletes garnered all-region honors, including sophomores Carson Schaake and Raymond Knoll who were also named first and second-team All-Big Ten honorees. Schaake was crowned co-champion at the Big Ten Tournament, becoming just the third Hawkeye all-time and first since 1992 to accomplish the feat.

IOWA BASEBALL

Iowa finished the 2015 season with a 41-18 overall record -- the second most wins in a single season in program history. The Hawkeyes advanced to their fourth NCAA Tournament (first since 1990), going 2-2 to post Iowa's first NCAA Tournament win since 1972. Iowa had a pair of student-athletes garner three All-America distinctions in addition to having a school-record six student-athletes earn All-Big Ten recognition in 2015. Iowa had five players selected in the 2015 MLB Draft.

"I chose to attend the University of Iowa because of its beautiful campus and academically, the university has one of the top schools for education. A degree from Iowa will be a great thing. Athletically, I become a Hawkeye because of the family feel within the program and the coaching staff is one of the best in the country."

JOEL BOOKER - Senior - Columbus, Ohio

"I chose the University of Iowa because I felt the program had an exceptional coaching staff and baseball atmosphere. I know I will get a quality education at the UI and the program will also prepare me to pursue a career in baseball. I believe this is the best decision I have ever made."

AUSTIN GUZZO - Sophomore - Brooklin, Ontario, Canada

"I chose to continue my educational and baseball career at the University of Iowa because of the opportunities this university has to offer both in the classroom and on the field. When choosing a school to continue my baseball career I was looking for a school with good team chemistry and coaches that excel in player development. I came to realize Iowa was the clear choice. Not only is it a great school educationally, but it is a great school to play baseball."

ROBERT NEUSTROM - Freshman - Sioux City, Iowa

"I chose the University of Iowa because my family and I were highly impressed with the entire coaching staff as far as how they went about their business, and their vision for the future of Iowa baseball. From my first encounter with the coaching staff at the prospect camp, it became clear that coach Heller and his staff not only were great coaches, but great people. From an academic standpoint, the Tippie College of Business and certain scholarly programs it offers will allow me to achieve my initial career goals outside of baseball."

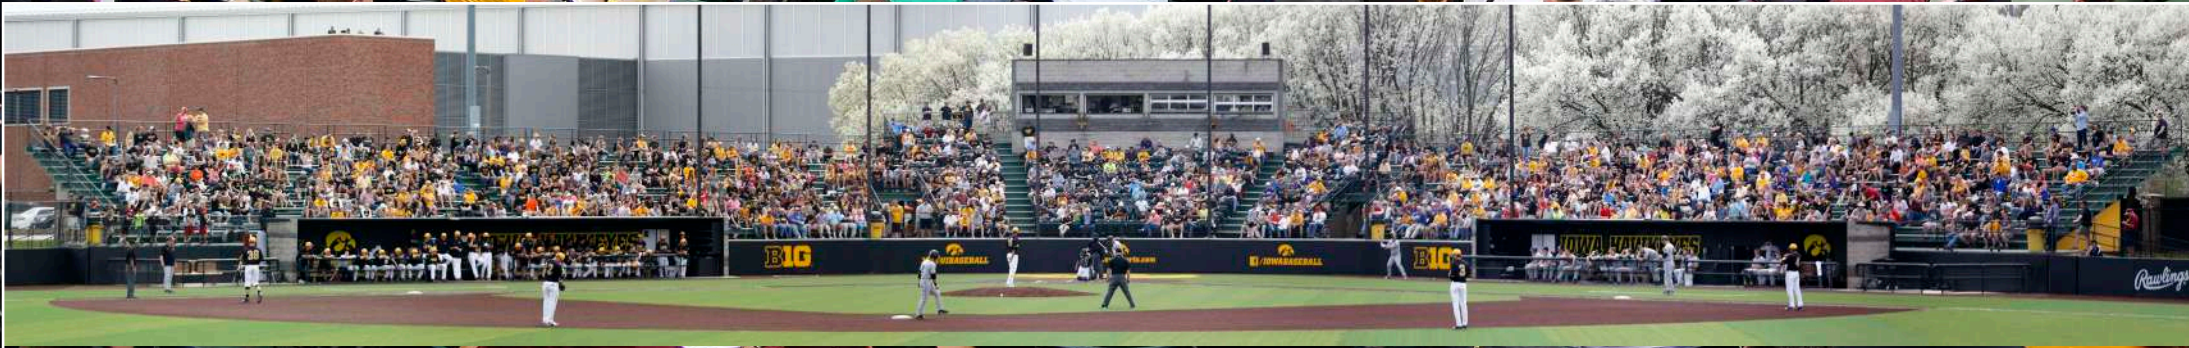

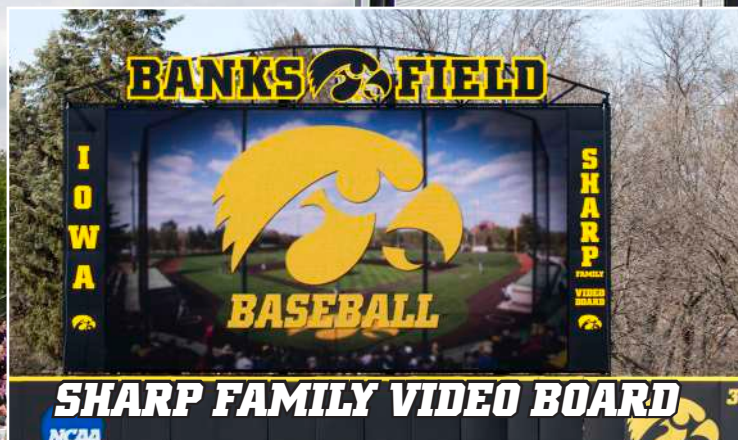

GRANT KLENOVICH - Sophomore - Winnetaka, Ill.

"I chose to attend the University of Iowa because I have always dreamt of being a Hawkeye. The opportunity to get a great education, along with being able to compete at the Division I level as a Hawkeye is something you do not pass up."

TYLER PEYTON - Senior - Grimes, Iowa

"Growing up a Hawkeye fan, it was a dream come true to sign with the University of Iowa. Being the only Division I college baseball team in Iowa, you represent the entire state. Having the opportunity to earn a degree from the University of Iowa is an absolute honor."

JOSH MARTSCHING - Redshirt Junior - Bloomfield, Iowa

The second phase of the Duane Banks Field renovation was completed in 2015 when AstroTurf replaced the outfield grass and warning track. The infield was changed to the surface prior to the 2014 season meaning there is now zero dirt or natural grass at the Hawkeyes' home venue.

Phase II renovations also included the installation of a state-of-the-art videoboard in right center field and a new padded wall on the outfield fence and down the foul lines.

With the first two phases complete, Phase III calls for brand new stadium seating and a new press box to be constructed surrounding the existing playing field.

The facility was renamed as Duane Banks Baseball Field in honor of the Hawkeyes' former head coach in 2001. Banks, the winningest coach in Iowa history, served as Iowa's head baseball coach from 1970-1997.

Banks Field was originally built in 1974. The 3,000-seat stadium had dimensions of 330 feet down the lines, 375 in the power alleys and 400 to centerfield. That has decreased slightly and currently sits at 329 down the lines and 395 to centerfield.

In 2002, former Hawkeye and former Major Leaguer Cal Eldred donated $245,000 to fund the installation of lights at Banks Field.

The complex at Banks Field features locker rooms for both teams and umpires and a press box that was initially built in 1989 and renovated in 2002.

The Hawkeyes utilize the Indoor Practice Facility located directly south of Banks Field throughout the winter and a hitting-only facility is located off the Jacobson Building adjacent to Banks Field. Iowa also utilizes a second turf facility on the campus' west side.

JACOBSON HITTING FACILITY

The Hawkeyes added the Jacobson Hitting Facility in January, 2015, -- a facility that is located adjacent to Duane Banks Field. The facility has four drop-down batting cages, as well as additional nets for tee work. Self-feeding machines, tees, equipment, and areas for front toss are available for student-athletes to utilize in their training. The facility is available for players to get extra repetitions at their convenience.

The UI Athletics Department also added a second indoor facility -- Iowa Turf at the HTRC -- which gives the Hawkeyes a second location for practices during the winter months. Both the Indoor Practice Facility and Iowa Turf have drop-down batting cages and give the team a first-class practice facilities.

In addition to their main locker room inside the UI Recreation Building, the Hawkeyes have a clubhouse in the bowels of Duane Banks Field, which was renovated in the fall of 2014.

Duane Banks, following 28 years as Iowa's head baseball coach retired from coaching following the 1997 season.

Banks was inducted into the 2011 UI Hall of Fame. Banks led the Hawkeyes to its only College World Series appearance in 1972 and won Big Ten Championships in 1972 and 1990, as well as a share of the Big Ten crown in 1974. In 1981, Banks led Iowa to 44 wins, the most in school history. He earned Big Ten Conference and District Coach of the Year honors in 1990 and was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Hall of Fame in 1991. Banks posted a career record of 901-585-4, while coaching six All-Americans, 31 All-Big Ten selections, 33 Academic All-Americans, and 57 players who signed professional contracts. In the fall of 2001, Iowa's home field was officially designated as the Duane Banks Baseball Field.

In 1990, Banks led Iowa to a Big Ten title and to the NCAA playoffs for the first time since 1975. The 1990 squad won a record 22 Big Ten games and placed a record-tying five players (Tim Costo, John DeJarld, Chris Hatcher, Keith Noreen and Brian Wujick) on the all-Big Ten squad.

Many of his former Hawkeyes have earned pro contracts and five—Mike Boddicker, Cal Eldred, Jim Sundberg, Tim Costo and Jeff Jones—made it to the major leagues. Tim Costo was the eighth pick overall in 1990 draft, marking the second straight season Banks produced a first round draft choice. Eldred was selected in the first round by Milwaukee in 1989. Fifty-seven of Banks' former players signed pro contracts.

Banks served as an assistant coach for half a season at Iowa. The Hawkeyes won 14 of their final 27 games under his direction. Duane's next club won 28 games, at that time an Iowa record, in his first full campaign (1971).

Banks' 1972 team won Big Ten and District Four Championships to earn a berth in the College World Series, claiming Iowa's first outright Big Ten title in 33 years. As a result, Banks was named District Coach of the year.

Banks became Iowa's all-time winningest coach in 1985, passing Hall of Famer Otto Vogel, who won 440 games in 35 years. He joined the Iowa staff as an assistant coach in 1969, after serving in the same capacity at Colorado State. He spent two seasons at Parsons (Iowa) College, compiling a 91-10 mark in 1967-68. He was an assistant coach at Parsons in 1966.

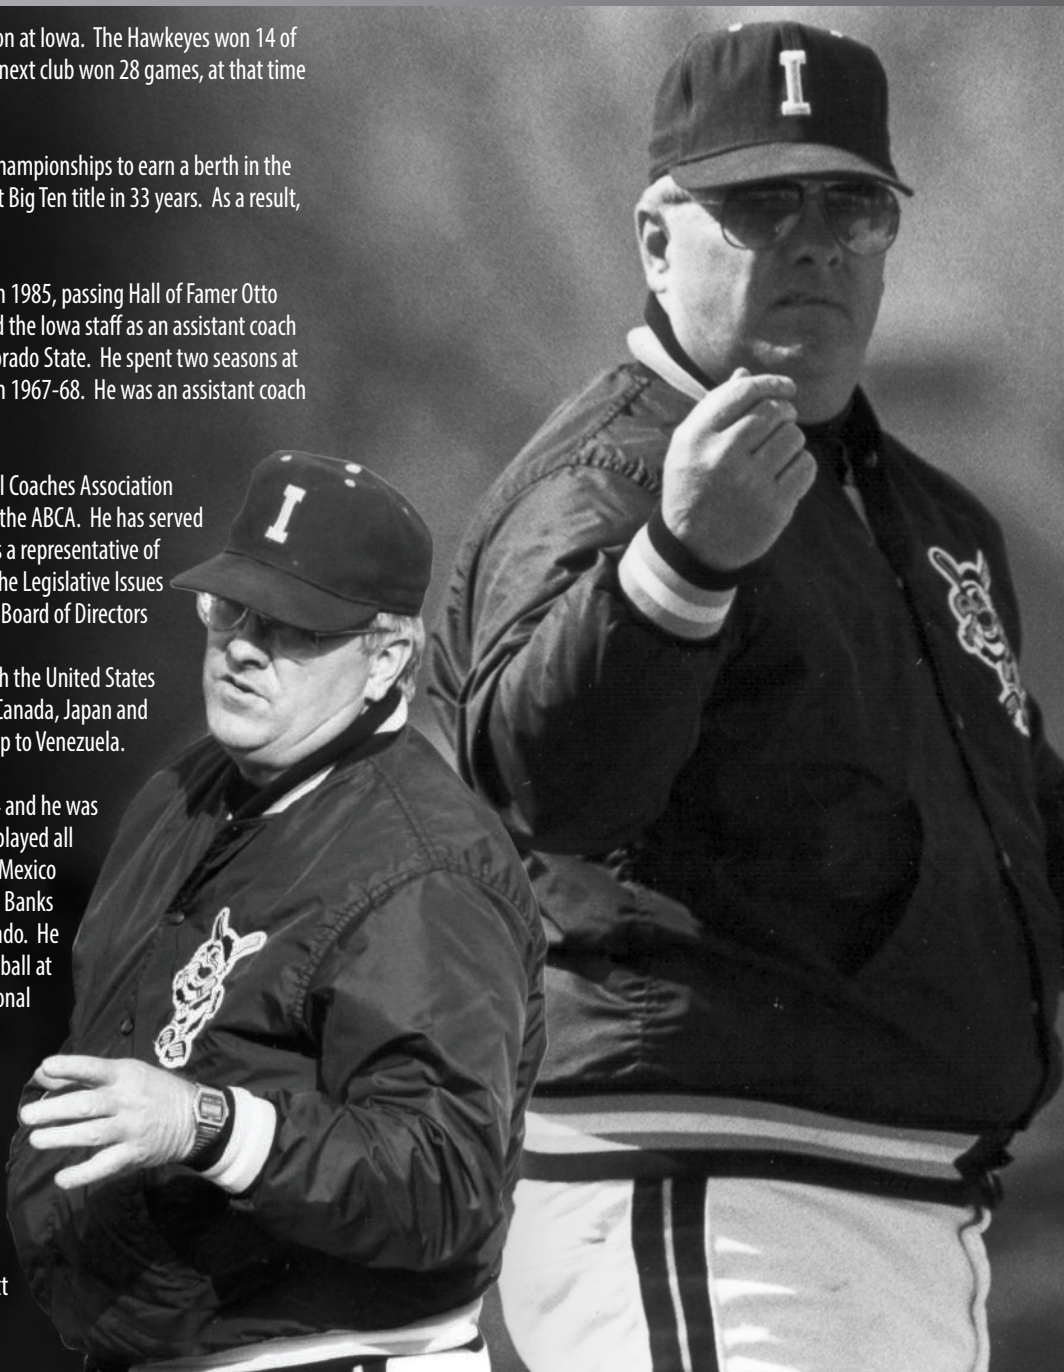

Banks is a past president of the American Baseball Coaches Association and has held a number of administrative posts in the ABCA. He has served as chairman of the NCAA Division I coaches and as a representative of District Four. A member of the Hall of Fame and the Legislative Issues committees, Banks is a past member of the ABCA Board of Directors

Banks was active in international baseball through the United States Baseball Federation. He took an all-star team to Canada, Japan and Korea in 1985 and coached another squad on a trip to Venezuela.

Banks and his Iowa team went to Holland in 1984 and he was on the staff of the USA college all-star team that played all over the world in 1982. He took an Iowa team to Mexico in the mid-1970s. A native of Grand Junction, CO, Banks played baseball and basketball at Northern Colorado. He was all-league and all-district three times in baseball at Northern Colorado and played on year of professional baseball with the Atlanta Braves organization in 1964.

Banks attended Mesa (Colorado) Junior College, received his bachelor's degree from Northern Colorado in 1965 and his master's degree from Colorado State in 1969.

Duane and his wife, Jeanette, have two sons, Scott and Kirk and a grandson Nile.

Iowa baseball will work very hard to improve our game on the field by getting stronger and more explosive off of it, in the weight room and by improving fitness levels and techniques of speed, agility, and quickness. We will give ourselves the best chance to put the best team on the field by analyzing weaknesses and movement patterns of current players and minimizing down time due to injury. Along the way, we will create championship level work habits and discipline. We truly believe that success is a culmination of the right daily habits on and off the field.

We have four goals in our strength and conditioning program

1) INCREASE ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE

- Improve your game with better speed and explosive power
- Throw and hit harder, run faster by developing a strong and explosive lower body and core.

2) DECREASE RATE OF INJURY

- Significantly reduce your risk of joint and tendon injuries.
- Build the right strength and flexibility in the upper body to create not only better arm strength but healthier arms and shoulders.

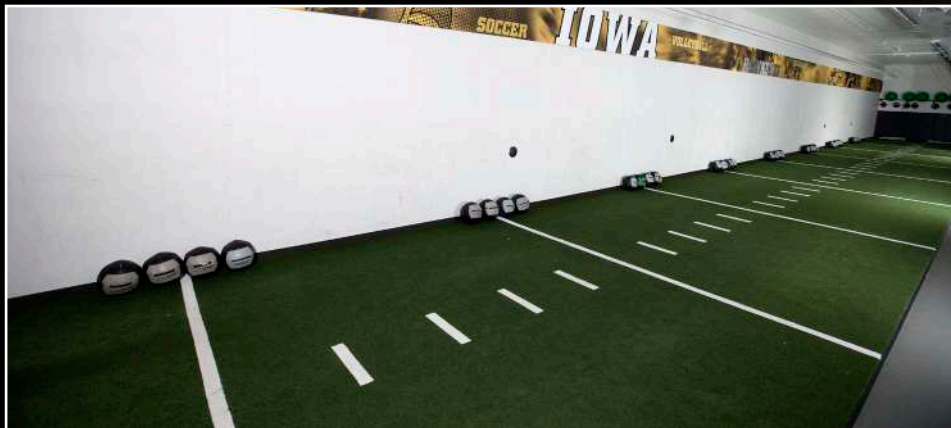

3) INCREASE SELF CONFIDENCE

- There is a certain confidence in knowing you have prepared yourself and given yourself a chance to be successful.

4) IMPROVE MENTAL TOUGHNESS

- We will not be distracted and will develop the ability to focus on the task at hand and not be deterred by every day highs and lows

DONALD W. & MARILYN HEINEKING BASEBALL SCHOLARSHIP

Don Heineking established the Donald W. and Marilyn Heineking Baseball Scholarship in 2004. Don is a long-time supporter of Iowa athletics, a member of the Johnson County I-Club Board of Directors and member of the Iowa Scholarship Fund Board of Directors. In 2002, Don and Marilyn established scholarships in football and women's basketball. Then, in 2003, they added a wrestling scholarship and men's basketball manager's scholarship. Most recently, they added baseball, softball and volleyball scholarships.

Don lives in Iowa City and is a member of the President's Club of the UI Foundation. Marilyn passed away in February of 2004.

CAL ELDRED LIGHTS FUND

Cal Eldred lit up Hawkeye baseball once again, instead of employing his expert pitching, the former Major League Baseball star and his wife, Christi, made a gift to fund the installation of lights at Iowa's Duane Banks Field. The Cedar Rapids couple gave $245,000 for the installation of lights at the baseball field named after Cal Eldred's former coach.

The gift, the largest ever from a current professional athlete's family to Iowa athletics, allowed the project to be completed in Sept. 2001. The Hawkeyes won the first night game played at Banks Field, April 10, 2002, against Northern Illinois, 11-9. The University of Iowa officially dedicated the lights Sat., April 13, 2002.

The Eldred's said their desire to give back to Iowa and to honor former Hawkeye coaches Duane Banks and Scott Broghamer -- who they said are their good friends and longtime mentors -- as reasons for making the gift. The gift was commemorated by a plaque at the field.

Cal Eldred, who grew up in Urbana and attended Iowa for three years before being drafted by the Milwaukee Brewers in 1989, said, "My experience at Iowa helped shape me as a player and person. Coach Banks has stayed involved in my life and has always been there for me. I couldn't be happier about making this gift for Hawkeye baseball. I hope others will consider helping out however they can."

MIKE BODDICKER SCHOLARSHIP

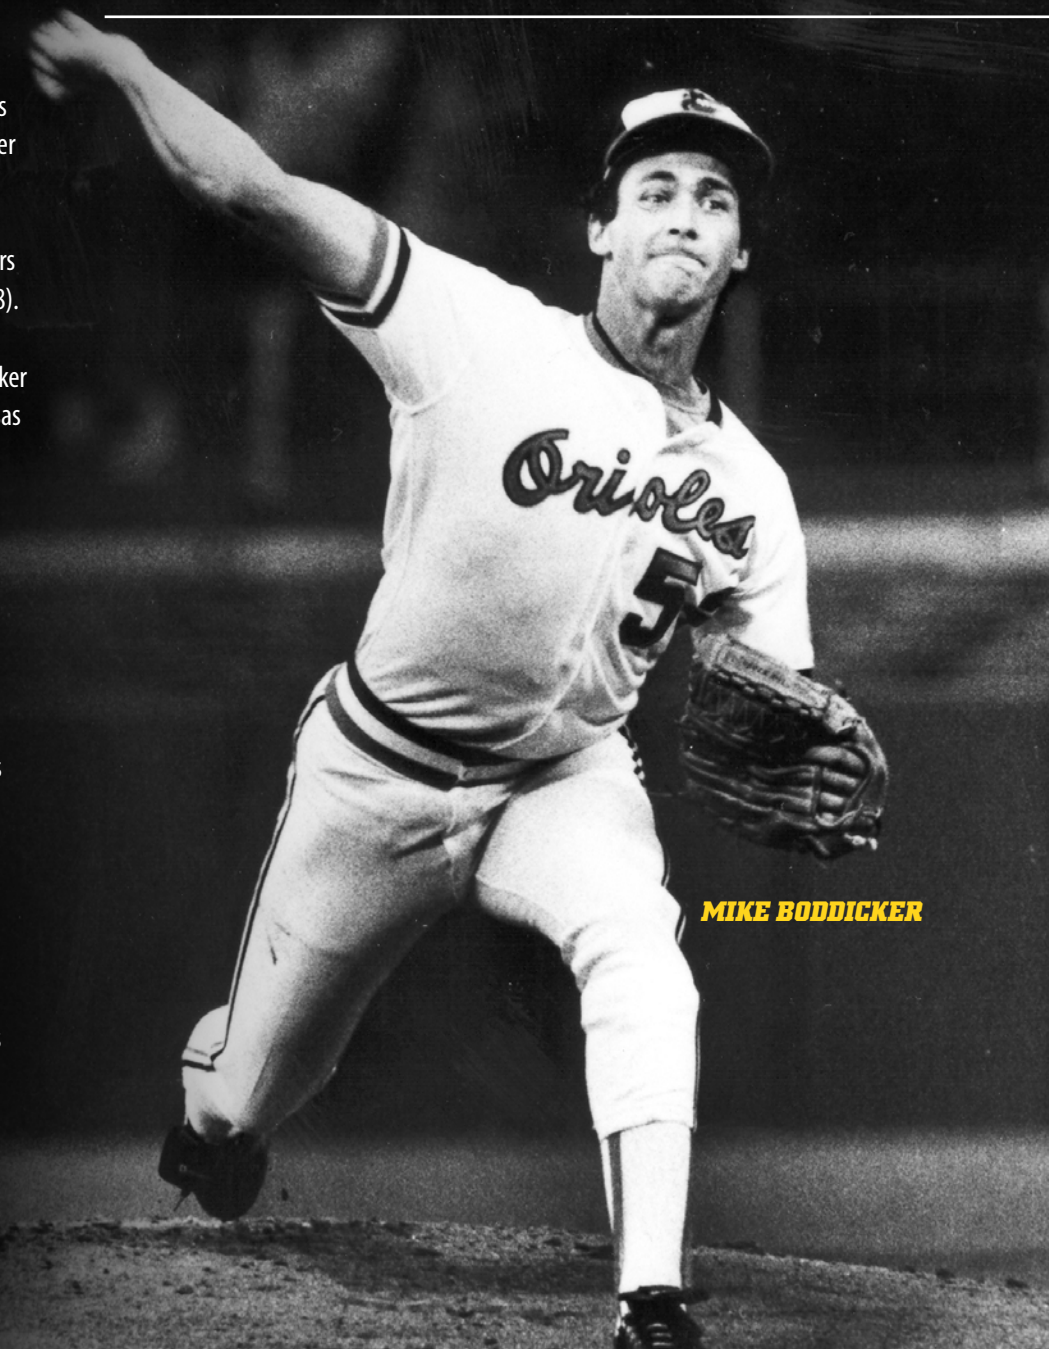

CAL ELDRED FAMILY

Former Iowa standout Mike Boddicker, and his family, have established the Mike Boddicker Scholarship. The scholarship goes each year to a member of the Iowa baseball team who is in good academic standing and displays outstanding character and personality.

Boddicker, a native of Norway, Iowa, earned All-Big Ten honors as a pitcher and infielder during his Hawkeye career (1976-78). In 1983, he was named the American League "Rookie of the Year." After pitching in the major leagues for 11 years, Boddicker retired in 1993. He played for the Baltimore Orioles and Kansas City Royals.

45.7 percent of UI students are from out of state

25 University of Iowa graduate programs and colleges ranked among the top 25 in the nation.

-U.S. News & World Report's America's Best Graduate Schools, 2015

With over 31,000 students in a city of roughly 75,000, UI offers a different atmosphere than many other universities in the Big Ten or the Midwest.

The unemployment rate in Iowa City (2.7 %) ranks among the nation's lowest.
(May, 2015).

Building on a rich tradition of excellence and innovation, the University of Iowa is educating more than 30,000 students annually, preparing them for success immediately following graduation, as well as continued achievements throughout their lives.

The University of Iowa offers more than 100 areas of undergraduate and graduate study, including seven professional degree programs, through its 11 colleges: the colleges of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Business, Dentistry, Education, Engineering, Law, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy and Public Health, and the Graduate College. The University also provides on-campus and distance learning opportunities through its division of Continuing Education.

Long recognized as one of the nation's leading centers for the arts, creative writing, space physics, hydraulics, basic health and science research, and communication studies, the University of Iowa is also developing new strengths in informatics, nanoscience, simulation technology, and other fields.

The University of Iowa has maintained its tradition as an innovator with its pioneering work in speech pathology, science and medicine. It's also known internationally for being home of one of the nation's largest public university owned hospitals.

Cultural DIVERSITY at the University of Iowa

The University of Iowa has worked hard to assure that students of all races, creeds, and backgrounds are represented in the student body. In the past five years, Iowa has moved aggressively towards its goal of creating communities of African American, Hispanic/Latino (a), Asian American, and Native American students, and making the University a stimulating, welcoming place.

The Center for Diversity and Enrichment is a coordinated university-wide resource for creating and maintaining this campus diversity and providing opportunities for all University students interested in other cultures. Scholarships, fellowships, and support programs help to make this possible. International Programs brings together scholars from around the world and UI students looking to expand their perspectives by studying abroad or exploring global issues on campus. International students at the University of Iowa represent more than 100 countries.

CONSIDER THE COMMUNITY

Some universities offer the large city atmosphere. Others offer the college town experience. The University of Iowa is uniquely situated to offer student athletes the very best of both of these different worlds.

Once the state capital, Iowa City is considered one of the truly great college towns in America. The city swells with excitement on game day when nearly 16,000 Hawkeye fans from across the state and Midwest converge on Carver-Hawkeye Arena to cheer the Hawkeyes to another victory.

Iowa City's downtown area is alive and thriving. Restaurants, shops and sidewalk cafes face onto pedestrian malls full of people watchers, street entertainers and food vendors.

Attractive in size and friendliness, Iowa City is big in the sense that it offers all the advantages and conveniences of much larger metropolitan areas like summer and permanent employment opportunities, live entertainment and concerts, fine dining and shopping, industry and commerce.

Iowa City is located in the heart of eastern Iowa, within easy driving distance of several major Midwestern cities including the state capital, Des Moines, as well as Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Minneapolis and Milwaukee.

"Iowa City is unlike any other place in the state, both because of its regional beauty and because of its independent, serendipitous spirit."

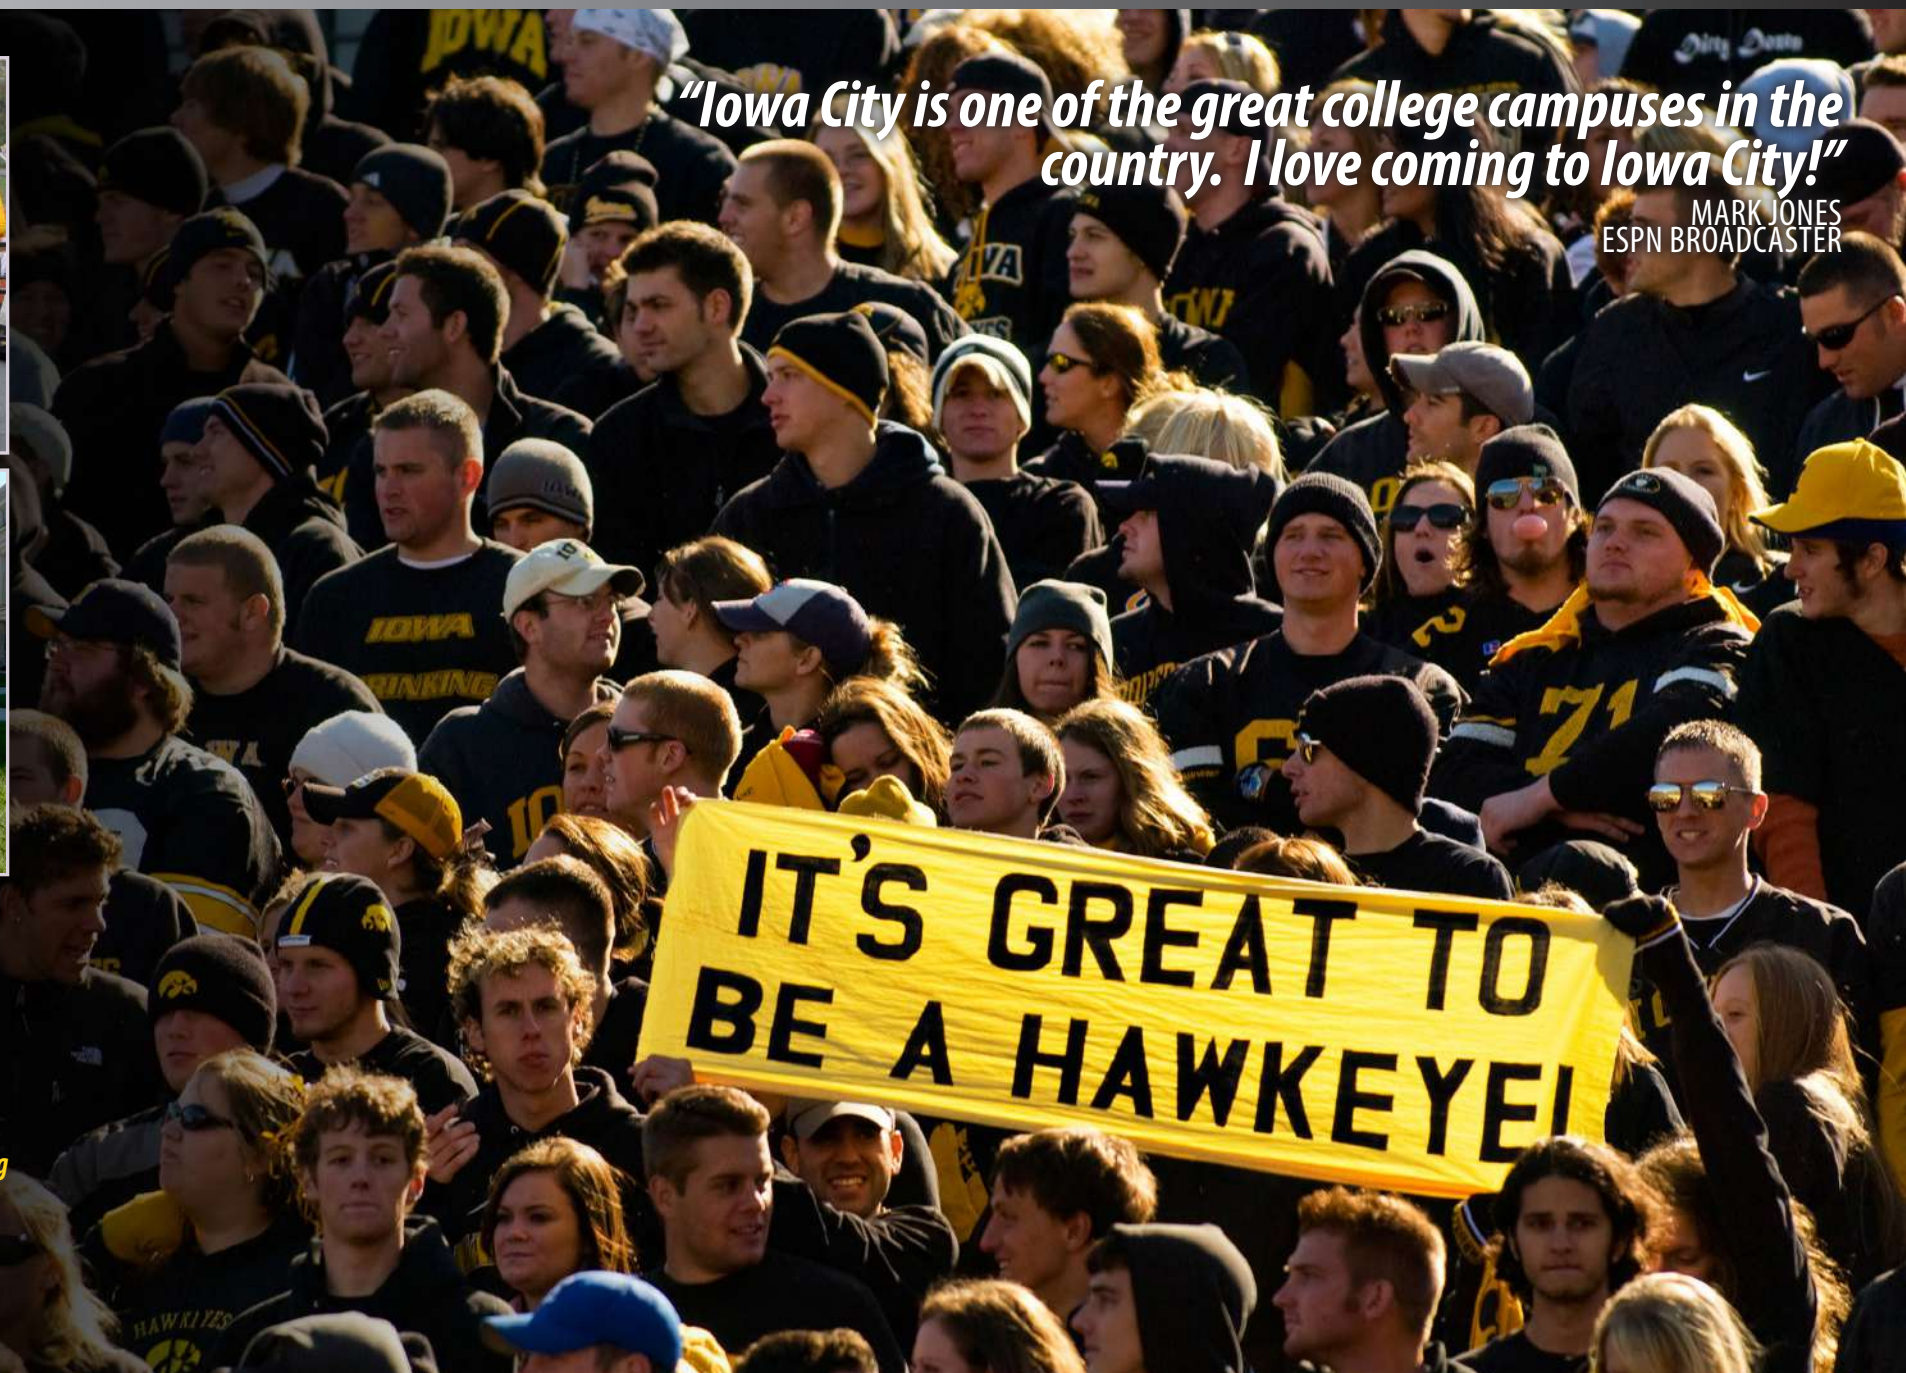

"There's nothing like feeling the crisp air as one tours the Big Ten campus, just as there's no other feeling like walking the shores along Lake MacBride, north of town. This is an ideal location for a weekend trip filled with sights, sounds, shopping and plenty of activities on any given weekend."

"If there is a star in Iowa, Iowa City is it."

A CAMPUS ON THE MOVE

The University of Iowa campus caters to pedestrians and bicyclists; it's compact enough to cross in a 20-minute walk. A free ride on a campus bus can cut that time in half. Entertainment on campus and in Iowa City is geared toward student budgets, with many events offered at no charge. The University of Iowa offers more than 400 student organizations, extensive recreation facilities, 50 fraternities and sororities, and a broad schedule of arts performances, lectures, cultural celebrations and club sports and intramural athletic contests to go along with the intercollegiate competition within the Big Ten Conference.

STUDENT-ORIENTED NIGHT LIFE

Iowa's campus is set right in the city's downtown area, where you'll find dance clubs, movies, coffeehouses, and restaurants to suit every taste. Live music can be found any night of the week in clubs and restaurants, even outside on warm evenings on the downtown pedestrian mall. Iowa City businesses are convenient and geared toward student tastes and needs.

CONSIDER THE OPPORTUNITY FOR A QUALITY EDUCATION

A quality education is one of the highest priorities at the University of Iowa. Just over 90 percent of Johnson County residents have graduated from high school, and in Iowa City nearly half of all residents have earned bachelor's degrees. In fact, census statistics indicate Johnson County is the 10th "smartest" county in the nation, based on percentage of residents holding bachelor's degrees.

The University of Iowa represents a strong presence in the community while enhancing the quality of life in Iowa City.

Your aspiration may be a career in medicine, law or education. Regardless of the specific career field, it's important to identify the college baseball program that places a high priority on academics and allows you to take full advantage of the tremendous educational opportunities available.

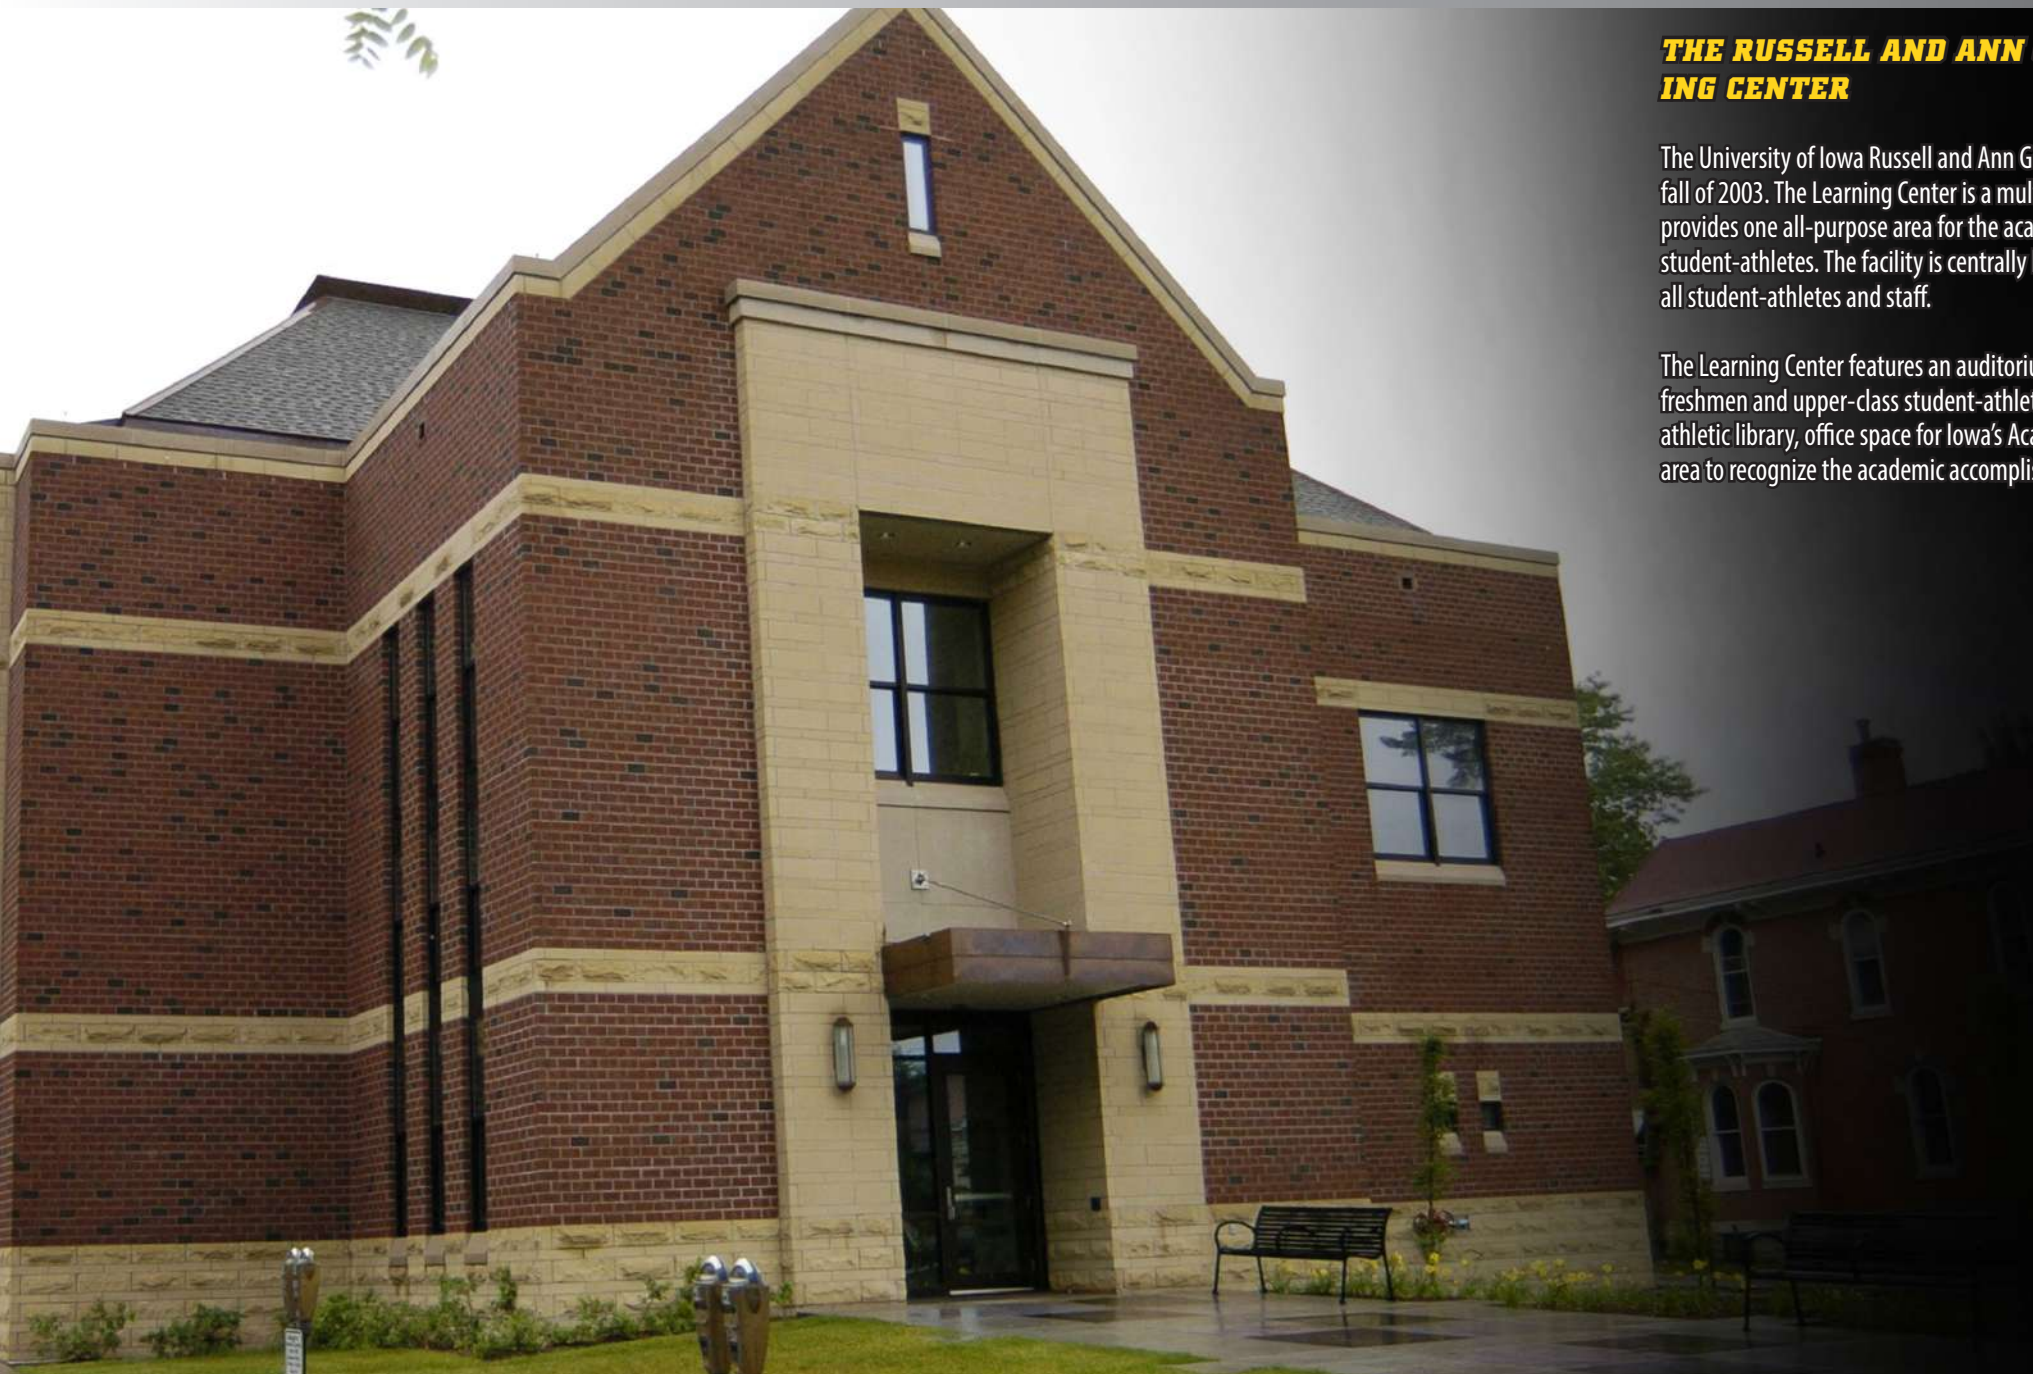

At the University of Iowa, student-athletes learn quickly that academic success is the highest priority.

ATHLETICS AND ACADEMICS

At The University of Iowa, a strong relationship has been developed between athletics and academics, where coaches and athletes work hand-in-hand with academic deans and professors, assuring the student-athlete the best possible opportunities to excel in the classroom and in athletics.

From the first visit for any prospective student-athlete, to the completion of their academic and athletic career at Iowa, academic personnel play a large role in the career of Hawkeye student-athletes. Beginning with the on-campus visits, student-athletes are introduced to professors in their selected field of study, and are able to establish a relationship and develop an understanding of the academic setting in which they will be involved.

THE RUSSELL AND ANN GERDIN ATHLETIC LEARNING CENTER

The University of Iowa Russell and Ann Gerdin Athletic Learning Center opened in the fall of 2003. The Learning Center is a multi-level, 20,000-square foot facility, which provides one all-purpose area for the academic pursuits for Iowa's male and female student-athletes. The facility is centrally located on the UI campus for easy access by all student-athletes and staff.

The Learning Center features an auditorium, two classrooms, study lounges for freshmen and upper-class student-athletes, a computer lab, a teaching lab, the athletic library, office space for Iowa's Academic Student Services staff and a display area to recognize the academic accomplishments of Iowa's student-athletes.

When a student-athlete considers his future, he should consider prospects beyond baseball. He should consider where he wants to be five, ten, fifteen years from today, and the best course of action for getting there. Also, he should decide early on to commit to excellence in every challenge undertaken.

Without a doubt, the men and women listed here took time to consider their future and the ways to get there. These former University of Iowa undergraduates have gone on to become leaders in their chosen fields. They also pursued their academic studies as strongly as the Iowa Hawkeyes go after a loose ball or rebound.

THE HAWKEYE NICKNAME

The University of Iowa borrowed its athletic nickname from the state of Iowa many years ago. The name Hawkeye was originally the name of the hero in the fictional novel, The Last of the Mohicans, written by James Fenimore Cooper. Cooper had the Delaware Indians bestow the name on a white scout who lived with them.

In 1838, 12 years after the book was published, people in the territory of Iowa acquired the nickname, chiefly through the efforts of Judge David Rorer of Burlington and James Edwards of Fort Madison.

Edwards, editor of the Fort Madison Patriot, moved his paper to Burlington in 1843 and renamed it the Burlington Hawkeye. The two men continued their campaign to popularize the name, and territorial officials eventually gave it their formal approval.

HERKY THE HAWKEYE

The Hawkeye nickname gained a tangible symbol in 1948 when a cartoon character, later to be named Herky the Hawkeye was hatched. The creator was Richard Spencer III, instructor of journalism at Iowa.

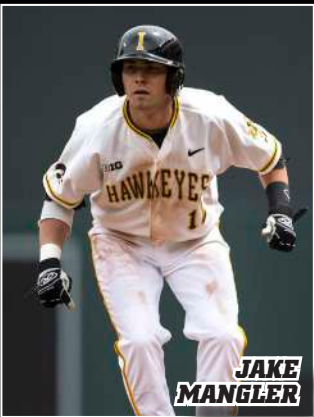

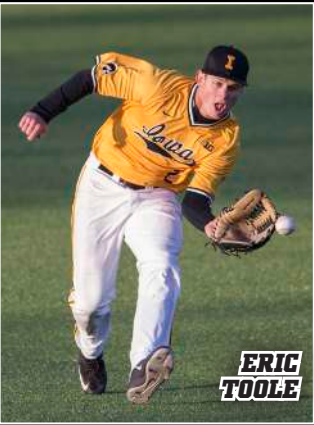

The impish Hawk was an immediate hit and acquired a name through a statewide contest staged by the athletic department. John Franklin, a Belle Plaine alumnus, was the man who suggested Herky.

Since his birth more than 45 years ago, Herky has symbolized Iowa athletics and epitomized University life. He even donned a military uniform during the Korean War and became the insignia of the 124th Fighter Squadron.

During the mid-1950s, Herky came to life at a football game as the Iowa mascot. Since that time, Herky has been a familiar figure at Iowa athletics events.
